Liangyou, Kaleidoscopic Modernity and the Shanghai Global Metropolis, 1926-1945 Paul Pickowicz, Kuiyi SHEN, Yingjin ZHANG, 2013-11-11 This collection of original essays explores the rise of popular print media in China as it relates to the quest for modernity in the global metropolis of Shanghai from 1926 to 1945 It does this by offering the first extended look at the phenomenal influence of the Liangyou pictorial The Young Companion arguably the most exciting monthly periodical ever published in China Special emphasis is placed on the profound social and cultural impact of this glittering publication at a pivotal time in China The essays explore the dynamic concept of kaleidoscopic modernity and offer individual case studies on the rise of art photography the appeals of slick patent medicines the resilience of female artists the allure of aviation celebrities the feistiness of women athletes representations of modern masculinity efforts to regulate the female body and female sexuality and innovative research that locates the stunning impact of Liangyou in the broader context of related cultural developments in Tokyo and Seoul Contributors include Paul W Ricketts Timothy J Shea Emily Baum Maura Elizabeth Cunningham Jun Lei Amy O Keefe Hongjian Wang Ha Yoon Jung Lesley W Ma Tongyun Yin and Wang Chuchu Framing Portraits, Binding Albums Shilpi Goswami, Suryanandini Narain, (eds.), 2025-01-06 Long neglected in academic discourse in India family photographs make a silent contribution to the histories of photography marginality and the family In this volume the writers dwell on the importance of family photographs and their visual omnipresence in our daily lives They point out how family photographs have belonged to the vernacular material of visual culture more seen and lived with less written and consciously thought about Attempting to retrieve family photographs from a space of neglect this volume demonstrates how they are fundamental to the microhistories of a nation and its many societies and suggests the importance of such counterarguments to the dominant strains in an emerging discursive space The essays do not offer a comprehensive survey of all types of family photographs in India Instead they present focused insights into chosen areas of interest on the part of the writers Collectively they embrace the intersectionalities of gender caste class and regional trajectories making the politics of representation even more layered with contestations between the historical oral and affective memorialisation surrounding family archives and photographs These concerns centrally inform the essays as they accept and negotiate a terrain shared by all types of narrativisation
