The Mass Media in Canada Mary Vipond, 2011-03-25 Canada has one of the most advanced mass media systems in the world which allows Canadians more access to American culture via television the movies and the Internet than ever before At the same time governments support the production and distribution of Canadian content to Canadians In this fully updated fourth edition Mary Vipond traces the rise of the traditional mass media in Canada explores the new media and discusses the influence of old mass media on new media Clearly written and persuasively argued The Mass Media in Canada demonstrates the huge challenges government face today in trying to influence media content and considers the troubling questions of who decides what we read watch and hear

Music in Range Brian Fauteux, 2015-11-02 Music in Range explores the history of Canadian campus radio highlighting the factors that have shaped its close relationship with local music and culture The book traces how campus radio practitioners have expanded stations from campus borders to surrounding musical and cultural communities by acquiring FM licenses and establishing community based mandates The culture of a campus station extends beyond its studio and into the wider community where it is connected to the local music scene within its broadcast range The book examines campus stations and local music in Vancouver Winnipeg and Sackville NB and highlights the ways that campus stations through music based programming their operational practices and the culture under which they operate produce alternative methods and values for circulating local and independent Canadian artists at a time when ubiquitous commercial media outlets do exactly the opposite Music in Range sheds light on a radio sector that is an integral component of Canada's musical and cultural fabric and positions campus radio as a worthy site of attention at a time when connectivity and sharing between musicians music fans and cultural intermediaries are increasingly shaping our experience of music radio and sound

The Media Gaze Augie Fleras, 2011-09-15 While Canada is known for its official commitment to diversity a close look at our media reveals that though they frequently promote superficial representations of difference they actually play a pivotal role in producing and reproducing the values structures and priorities of a predominantly straight white male society The Media Gaze exposes how newscasters advertisers filmmakers and television programmers attempt to co opt audiences into believing that media depictions entail neither prejudice nor perspective In truth the experiences of those who fall outside of the media s preferred populations are actively ignored or misrepresented In this timely audit of the Canadian mainstream media sociologist Augie Fleras draws on compelling case studies to explore the societal implications of the industry s hidden bias He also examines alternative forms of media and media literacy to present readers with tools to challenge the dominant agenda

Journalism in Crisis Mike Gasher, Colette Brin, Christine Crowther, Gretchen King, Errol Salamon, Simon Thibault, 2016-01-01 Journalism in Crisis addresses the concerns of scholars activists and journalists committed to Canadian journalism as a democratic institution and as a set of democratic practices The authors look within Canada and abroad for solutions for balancing the Canadian media ecology Public policies have been central to the creation and shaping of Canada s media system and rather than wait for new technologies or economic models the contributors offer concrete recommendations for how public policies can foster journalism that can support democratic life in twenty first century Canada Their work which includes new theoretical perspectives and valuable discussions of journalism practices in public private and community media should be read by professional and citizen journalists academics media activists policy makers and media audiences concerned about the future of democratic journalism in Canada
