

Conflict Resolution Role-Plays

Guide children through role-playing scenarios where they encounter conflicts and practice resolving them peacefully and assertively. This activity promotes problem-solving skills, empathy, and effective communication.

Emotion Detective

Give children the task of observing people's facial expressions, body language, and tone of voice in different situations. Afterward, they can discuss their observations and try to identify the emotions they are feeling.

Emotion Charades

Create a list of emotions (happy, sad, angry, surprised, etc.), and have children take turns acting out the emotions without using any words while the others guess what emotion they are feeling.

Feelings Thermometer

Create a visual "feelings thermometer" with a range of emotions from calm to extremely upset. Children can point to where they currently fall on the thermometer to express how they are feeling, facilitating self-regulation and emotional awareness.

Regulation Techniques

Teach children calming strategies such as counting to ten, taking deep breaths, or using positive self-talk to cope with intense emotions and regulate their emotional responses in challenging situations.

Emotion Bingo

Create Bingo cards with various emotions written in each square. Children can mark off the emotions they experience throughout the day or as they recognize them in others. This game reinforces emotion recognition and vocabulary.

Emotion Art Collage

Provide magazines, newspapers, and art supplies for children to create collages that represent different emotions. Encourage them to describe their artwork and the emotions it conveys, fostering creative and emotional expression.

Emotion Sorting Game

Prepare a collection of pictures, stories, or scenarios depicting various emotions, and ask children to sort them into categories based on the emotions they represent. This activity helps children categorize and label different emotions accurately.

Mindfulness Exercises

Introduce simple mindfulness exercises such as deep breathing, body scans, or guided imagery to help children become more aware of their emotions and learn to manage stress and anxiety effectively.

Gratitude Practice

Encourage children to keep a gratitude journal where they write down things they are thankful for each day. This practice helps cultivate positive emotions, resilience, and appreciation for the good things in life.

Rainbow Children(r)-Magical Moving Stories Linda Ananda, 2012-08 Imagine having the ability to flow through life's challenges with ease, a clear mind, connection with others, and nature's soft strength that achieves much for the good of all. A channel of pure innate wisdom, emotional intelligence, and a sense of unlimited love. Now imagine that you were given the chance to develop these qualities as a child when you were most receptive and when they could guide your whole life, especially the tumultuous times of teens and early adulthood. Imagine that not only were you given this gift when you most needed it, but that it was given to you in a beautiful rainbow of stories that you danced, laughed, and sang along to with your friends and an attentive, connected parent or teacher. This is the gift of the rainbow children's stories that you are holding in your hand to whom will you give this precious gift? This is a unique work introducing qualities of acceptance and adaptability that can elude the best of us in challenging times. How wonderful to learn these strengths through activity stories and fun as a child. Linda's books are a gem amongst the chaos, offering children the opportunity to recognise their own feelings and to see ways in which to deal with them towards the most positive outcome. Rich are the possibilities of a person whose awareness is awakened to these philosophies in childhood, simple and obvious as they are in hindsight, so many of us are not able to navigate the complexities of our feelings with ease. These books could make that difference. Paula Mayura, founder of the Mayura School of Yoga, rainbow children's is an inspired and lovely project which, as an ex-teacher of infants, I can sense will have a great interest for and influence on children in need of a spiritual input and support. Ruth White, bestselling author of Working with Your Chakra.
