A Quick List of Research Paper Topics and How to Start Your Research Paper C. G. Brewer,2016-06-06 You have found the book to help you survive your whole high school and college years Have you ever had a essay paper due and just had nothing no ideas nowhere to begin nowhere to start just staring at a blank screen or piece of paper This book is here to help you find a topic to write on and even before that show you the steps you need to take so you don t waste your time before you even begin starting your research and writing your paper You will find the following categories with tons of topics in each Animal Energy and Environment Business Crime and Law Drug and Drug Abuse Education Family and Children Issues Government and Political Issues Health Media and Communications Psychology Religion Science and Technology Social Issues Terrorism Women and Gender World Issues Don't worry if you don't see your specific category because it could be a topic. Even if it isn't these topics are great starting points to add another topic to one you currently have and or are maybe struggling with. It could also give you ideas on where to take a topic if you already have one chosen. Usually combining two topics can lead to a more in depth and focused research paper but it really depends on what your assignment asks for. In addition there are over 30 questions to help focus your research find your supporting points and help to begin your paper and write your thesis. No topic and no supporting points equal no thesis no research paper and the clock is tick tick ticking. There are also quick links within the e book to help you navigate and jump around within the categories with ease and convenience if you decide you want to change topics. This book will be a great addition to help any student who needs help finding a research topic and starting their paper.

Introducing Ethics Justin P. McBrayer, Peter J. Markie, 2014

Introducing Ethics A Critical Thinking Approach with Readings combines guiding commentary and questions with a rich selection of concise carefully edited and accessible readings on ethical theory and contemporary moral issues. This unique introduction shows students how to do philosophy by first analyzing texts identifying ethical positions and the arguments that support them and then evaluating the truth of those positions and the soundness of the arguments. In doing so it provides students with a uniquely engaging introduction to ethics that also hones their critical thinking skills.

FEATURES A unique Unit 1 gives students the conceptual tools to do philosophy with coverage of logic arguments moral reasoning and reading and writing philosophy. Extensive coverage of the three main areas of ethics metaethics normative ethics and applied ethics addresses issues often ignored by other texts including ethics vs science moral responsibility moral vs legal issues torture terrorism and more. Unit and chapter introductions outline major themes and issues and explain why they matter. Reading questions precede the essays and focus students studying on key points while discussion questions follow the readings and help students move into the evaluation phase. Argument Reconstruction Exercises after each reading provide practice in identifying the premises and conclusions in the essays. An Instructor's Manual with Test Bank on CD is available to adopters. A Companion Website at www.oup.com/us/mcbrayer provides all the material contained on the CD along with student resources.
