Legislature. Assembly,1918 The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship Contesting Religious Identities Bob E.J.H. Becking,Anna-Marie J.A.C.M. Korte,Lucien van Liere,2017-01-09 Religion is a hot topic on the public stages of secular societies not in its individualized liberal or orthodox form but rather as a public statement challenging the divide between the secular neutral space and the religious In this new challenging modus religion raises questions about identity power rationality subjectivity law and safety but above all religion questions contests and even blurs the borders between the public and the private These phenomena urge to rethink what are often considered to be clear differences between religions between the public and the private and between the religious and the secular In this volume scholars from a range of different disciplines map the different aspects of the dynamics of changing contesting and contested religious identities Girl in the Cellar Allan Hall,Michael Leidig,2010-03-09 Eight years of darkness On March 2 1998 while on her way to school ten year old Natascha Kampusch was abducted More than eight years later on August 23 2006 she escaped with a story that shocked and horrified the entire world She spent the most delicate years of her life hidden in a cellar underneath an ordinary Austrian suburban home How was she able to survive What sort of woman had emerged What kind of man was Wolfgang Priklopil her abductor and what demands had he made of her Journalists Allan Hall and Michael Leidig covered Natascha s story from the beginning The result of extraordinary investigative reporting Girl in the Cellar gets to the heart of this very tragic case to reveal a truth no one would have imagined
