Zuleta,2020-01-05 Minimalism is becoming a trend during this last decade and in this book I will show you how that this lifestyle is better than any other We are going to explore what is minimalism types of minimalism benefits of minimalism how to become a minimalist minimalist vs essentialist and even a 21 day challenge on how to become a minimalist Bringing Home the Missing Linck Jennifer Jackson Linck,2013-10 From the time Jennifer Linck was old enough to rock her Cabbage Patch Doll she dreamed of being a mother As her friends began welcoming tiny bundles of joy Jennifer struggled to conceive a child As a gut wrenching desire to be a mom built within her God began to place adoption on Jennifer's heart. In 2010 Jennifer and her husband John felt God leading them to build their family through international adoption. Eighteen months after they began their journey to Ethiopia God took them on a detour that only He could have orchestrated. After accepting a job at the local homeless shelter Jennifer began to see how God truly wanted her to live her life serving the least of these. As God transformed her heart and showed her how to truly love the poor, the widow, and the orphan He began to weave together a story that would eventually lead to her son. In Bringing Home the Missing Linck Jennifer shares how the pain and heartache of infertility became the building blocks God used to strengthen her faith and make her heart more like His as He answered her prayers for a child.

Faithful Deliberation T J Geiger, 2022-06-14. Investigates the rhetorical practices used by contemporary evangelical Christian women to confront theological and cultural issues that stymie deliberation within their communities. While often perceived as an insular enclave with a high level of in-group agreement about political and social issues, predominantly white evangelicalism includes prominent voices urging deliberation about appropriate responses to sexual abuse, domestic violence, and the discourses surrounding these traumas. In Faithful Deliberation: Rhetorical Invention, Evangelicalism, and MeToo Reckonings T J Geiger II examines theologically reflective rhetorical invention that reconfigures trauma, minimizing commonplaces in order to facilitate community internal deliberation. Resting at the intersection of feminist rhetorical studies and religious rhetorics, this book contains four related theological rhetorical case studies that consider how figures such as Beth Moore, Jen Hatmaker, Rachael Denhollander, Karen Swallow Prior, and others engaged in rhetorical invention. Each juxtaposes differing approaches to contending with rape, domestic violence, sexual abuse, and other traumas. Each case contrasts an approach based on appeals to highly circumscribed understandings of grace, purity, and other denomination-specific traditions and values with approaches rooted in those same traditions and values but with an eye toward community transformation, healing through justice, and reinvigorated forms of forgiveness. Geiger skillfully argues that this faithful deliberation involves practices of thinking reflecting storytelling and acting within a tightly bounded community that can foster change through a recommitment to core values These rhetorical practices exemplify the kind of inventive listening deliberative discourse requires point to the sort of healing they may promote in response to trauma and trauma discourses and occur within a range of genres including social media posts blog entries published interviews victim impact statements and petitions This study of invention for evangelical to other evangelical deliberative discourse contributes to rhetorical studies by demonstrating the civic and social possibilities of rhetoric within religious enclaves By locating the case studies as recent moments in longer US public and evangelical histories of activism deliberative practice and politics Faithful Deliberation brings into focus how enclaves and the dominant public sphere interact
