The Islamic Society of Central Jersey: Its Historical Journey The ISCJ History Project Team,2018-08-30 This book tells the story of the Islamic Society of Central Jersey ISCJ and the pioneers who came to New Jersey from different countries of the world for education and jobs starting in the 1950s with aspirations for a good life for themselves and their children And to provide religious guidance the Islamic Center of Central Jersey was conceived where Muslims and Non Muslims could go to seek true knowledge of Islam from the resident Imams teachers and renown scholars from around the world From Heart of Stone to Heart of Flesh: Evolutionary Journey from Extremism to Moderation Zeina M. Barakat,2017-08-24 This book examines the forces of human transformation from extremism to moderation It analyzes the ethical indicators which determine making the choice of the path to take when one is faced with crucial decisions to make The author focuses on three central values namely a moderation reflecting balance in dealing with individual and group issues b reconciliation reflecting willingness to heal wounds and repair broken relationships by showing respect for the personal and collective narrative of the other and feeling empathy and compassion for the pain and suffering of other and viewing the perspective of the other by putting oneself in the shoes of the other c peace coexisting with the other reflecting tolerance for the beliefs and views of other These three concepts are linked together in consequential sequence with each leading to the other and eventually resulting prosperity and security

Home Literacy Environment and Literacy Acquisition George Georgiou,Tomohiro Inoue,2025-06-14 if supportLists This book provides a comprehensive and up to date overview of the literature on home literacy environment and its association with literacy skills in different languages and contexts Home literacy environment HLE an umbrella term that encompasses various activities parents engage in with their children has been studied extensively by psychologists linguists behavioral geneticists and educators However no systematic effort has been put into synthesizing this growing body of research in a coherent manner making it difficult for researchers and various stakeholders to understand the key points of past research while keeping up with the latest research findings To address this need the first part of the book provides an overview of the current literature on conceptualizations of HLE covering prominent theoretical models the measurement of HLE the potential extension and generalizability of models across contexts the intersections between home learning environment in literacy numeracy and other domains and the genetic and environmental etiology of literacy development The second section of the book hosts a wide variety of studies from all over the world conducted in English speaking countries UK U S Canada Finland Greece Turkey China Japan the Philippines and other Southeast Asian countries and Chile and other Latin American and Caribbean countries while it includes chapters with both typically developing children and children at familial risk of dyslexia The third section of this book offers a comprehensive collection of chapters on intervention studies examining the role of family literacy programs dialogic reading and onscreen digital access Together the 22 chapters of this book elucidate the complex nature of HLE and provide future research directions and instructional recommendations on how parents and policymakers can improve home literacy practices around the world As such this book is valuable for researchers educators and other professionals and the readership ranges from graduate students and scholars to parents and policymakers
