Kheer rice pudding and more Indigenous Food Systems Priscilla Settee, Shailesh Shukla, 2020-01-31 Indigenous Food Systems addresses the disproportionate levels of food related health disparities among First Nations, Métis and Inuit people in Canada seeking solutions to food insecurity and promoting well being for current and future generations of Indigenous people. Through research and case studies, Indigenous and non-Indigenous food scholars and community practitioners explore salient features, practices and contemporary challenges of Indigenous food systems across Canada. Highlighting Indigenous communities' voices, the contributing authors document collaborative initiatives between Indigenous communities, organizations and non-Indigenous allies to counteract the colonial and ecologically destructive monopolization of food systems. This timely and engaging collection celebrates strategies to revitalize Indigenous food systems such as achieving cultural resurgence and food sovereignty, sharing and mobilizing diverse knowledges and voices, and reviewing and reformulating existing policies, research and programs to improve the health, well being and food security of Indigenous and Canadian populations. Indigenous Food Systems is a critical resource for students in Indigenous studies, public health, anthropology and the social sciences, as well as a vital reader for policymakers, researchers and community practitioners.
