Landscape and Western Art Malcolm Andrews,1999 This book explores many issues raised by the range of ideas and images of the natural world in Western art since the Renaissance The whole concept of landscape is examined as a representation of the relationship between the human and natural worlds Featured artists include Claude Freidrich Turner Cole and Ruisdael and many different forms of landscape art are addressed such as land art painting photography garden design panorama and cartography

Chinese Landscape Painting as Western Art History James Elkins,2010-06-01 This is a provocative essay of reflections on traditional mainstream scholarship on Chinese art as done by towering figures in the field such as James Cahill and Wen Fong James Elkins offers an engaging and accessible survey of his personal journey encountering and interpreting Chinese art through Western scholars writings He argues that the search for optimal comparisons is itself a modern Western interest and that art history as a discipline is inherently Western in several identifiable senses Although he concentrates on art history in this book and on Chinese painting in particular these issues bear implications for Sinology in general and for wider questions about humanistic inquiry and historical writing Jennifer Purtle s Foreword provides a useful counterpoint from the perspective of a Chinese art specialist anticipating and responding to other specialists likely reactions to Elkins s hypotheses
