Pi Patel has an encyclopedic knowledge of animal behavior and a fervent love of stories. When Pi is sixteen his family emigrates from India to North America aboard a Japanese cargo ship along with their zoo animals bound for new homes. The ship sinks. Pi finds himself alone in a lifeboat with his only companions a hyena, an orangutan, a wounded zebra, and Richard Parker, a 450-pound Bengal tiger. Soon the tiger has dispatched all but Pi, whose fear, knowledge, and cunning allow him to coexist with Richard Parker for 227 days while lost at sea. When they finally reach the coast of Mexico, Richard Parker flees to the jungle never to be seen again. The Japanese authorities who interrogate Pi refuse to believe his story and press him to tell them the truth. After hours of coercion, Pi tells a second story, a story much less fantastical, much more conventional, but is it more true?

The Making of Life of Pi Jean-Christophe Castelli, 2012-11-13. Diversely illustrated with 275 photographs and illustrations. The Making of Life of Pi tells the inside story of how renowned Academy Award-winning director Ang Lee brought Yann Martel's international bestseller to life as a 3-D film. With a rich, entertaining text and a wide variety of facts, anecdotes, visual portfolios, and sidebars sure to delight readers of all ages, The Making of Life of Pi follows the making of the film from pre-production through final cut. Of course, you'll meet Suraj Sharma, the sixteen-year-old, unknown Indian high school student who won the part of Pi, although he had no acting experience and didn't even know how to swim; yet in the end, he performed all of his own stunts. You'll learn about the massive wave tank, custom-built for the film, that replicated a vast, stormy ocean in all its moods, thanks to a complex and specially devised menu of wave and wind combinations, some really powerful machinery, and tons of water. You'll get to look inside the fifty-page, fully illustrated survival guide that shipwreck survivor Steven Callahan created for Pi to consult on his raft. And you'll read about King Themis Minh and Jonas, the four Bengal tigers used in the film, and discover how visual effects were able to create a seamless 3-D image of the tiger, Richard Parker. A foreword by Yann Martel, an introduction by Ang Lee, and an incredible range of visual materials, fine art, vintage archival imagery, and commissioned portfolios by photographer Mary Ellen Mark and artist Alexis Rockman supplement the film's storyboards, sketches, and stills, rounding out this highly experiential book for lovers of the novel and film viewers alike.
