Thinking with Animation Joff P. N. Bradley,Catherine Ju-yu Cheng,2021-08-09 This volume brings together scholars based predominantly in Asia to contribute provocative and experimental essays on the dynamic relationship between animation and philosophy In an inventive and playful philosophical way they address not only the mainstay of Japanese animation but also Korean film picture books and Mickey Mouse to understand what we might call film philosophy in Asia In thinking animation with concepts from the technicolour philosophies of Deleuze Guattari Stiegler Benjamin Kristeva and Heidegger the book sees animation not as a representation of a philosophical idea per se but conceptualizes it as a philosophical thinking device In the images themselves what is at work is not just the thinking of a particular director or manga artist but rather thinking as such through and by the images themselves The scholars in this collection are committed to thinking images themselves as thought experiments and thinking machines
