The Reluctant Fundamentalist:

The reluctant fundamentalist Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Publishing Company, The Reluctant Fundamentalist Mohsin Hamid, 2009-06-05 From the author of the award winning Moth Smoke comes a perspective on love prejudice and the war on terror that has never been seen in North American literature At a caf table in Lahore a bearded Pakistani man converses with a suspicious and possibly armed American stranger As dusk deepens to night he begins the tale that has brought them to this fateful meeting Changez is living an immigrant s dream of America At the top of his class at Princeton he is snapped up by Underwood Samson an elite firm that specializes in the valuation of companies ripe for acquisition He thrives on the energy of New York and the intensity of his work and his infatuation with regal Erica promises entrance into Manhattan society at the same exalted level once occupied by his own family back in Lahore For a time it seems as though nothing will stand in the way of Changez s meteoric rise to personal and professional success But in the wake of September 11 he finds his position in his adopted city suddenly overturned and his budding relationship with Erica eclipsed by the reawakened ghosts of her past And Changez s own identity is in seismic shift as well unearthing allegiances more fundamental than money power and perhaps even love Elegant and compelling Mohsin Hamid s second novel is a devastating exploration of our divided and yet ultimately indivisible world Excuse me sir but may I be of assistance Ah I see I have alarmed you Do not be frightened by my beard I am a lover of America I noticed that you were looking for something more than looking in fact you seemed to be on a mission and since I am both a native of this city and a speaker of your language I thought I might offer you my services as a bridge from The Reluctant Fundamentalist The Reluctant Fundamentalist Mira Nair, 2013-04-15 Based on the bestselling novel by Mohsin Hamid Internationally acclaimed director Mira Nair offers the reader an exclusive behind the scenes look into the creation of her most ambitious film yet The Reluctant Fundamentalist Covering every aspect of the film making process this magnificently designed film book comprises an incredible array of images as well as short essays by those involved in the film making process Mira Nair discusses how the novel was turned into a screenplay Mohsin Hamid reminisces about his first experience on a film set production designer Michael Carlin recounts the thrill of transforming Old Delhi into contemporary Lahore lead actor Riz Ahmed reveals how he got under the skin of his character Changez and editor Shimit Amin demystifies some of his tricks on the editing table This book also features a series of gorgeous black and white photographs by celebrated photographer Brigitte Lacombe Engaging Terror Marianne Vardalos, 2009 Engaging Terror A Critical and Interdisciplinary Approach is a collection of select extended papers drawn from The Human Condition Series THCS conference on Terror that took place in May 2008 The international scope of the conference drew participants from twenty three countries including Brazil Columbia Cuba France Israel Lebanon Lithuania New Zealand Nigeria Pakistan the Philippines Scotland Singapore South Africa Turkey and the United Kingdom The thirty five essays presented here are a representative sample of the interdisciplinary discussion which sought to analyze popular concepts like terrorism and terrorist as social political and psychosocial phenomena Engaging Terror seeks to reveal the diverse forms of terror that persist in contemporary societies For instance cultural forms such as the fine arts film literature mass media religion and market economy continue to define and limit rationality and freedom through institutionalized forms of terror In this way terror shapes our experiences not only through the politics of nation building and international relations but also through the social and ideological production of fear in everyday life Topics covered in this volume include the representation and production of terror from a multiplicity of sites ranging from mental health practices and organized religion to news coverage and musical scores This book will appeal to both scholars and general readers interested in how seemingly benign forms of terror shape and maintain the contemporary human condition Reaching beyond mainstream studies on terror as simply an international political phenomenon this interdisciplinary collection of work multiplies the fields of critical research to broaden the scope of analysis and fundamentally challenge the state of modernity information on the novel and the author Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu,Roxana Oltean,Mihaela Precup,2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg s multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013

The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark

Fictions of the War on Terror D. O'Gorman, 2015-06-29 This book argues that there are a number of contemporary novels that challenge the reductive us and them binaries that have been prevalent not only in politics and the global media since 9 11 but also in many works within the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction itself

The Reluctant Fundamentalist, 2013 When an American academic in Pakistan is kidnapped by anti American radicals the CIA thinks popular young Pakistani professor Changez is involved But as Changez tells his story about his life in the US to an American foreign correspondent the truth becomes harder to pin down

American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence McSweeney, 2016-12-05 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9 11 is a ground breaking collection of essays by some of the foremost scholars writing in the field of contemporary American film Through a dynamic critical analysis of the defining films of the turbulent post 9 11 decade the volume explores and interrogates the impact of 9/11 and the War on Terror on American cinema and culture. In a vibrant discussion of films like American Sniper (2014), Zero Dark Thirty (2012), Spectre (2015), The Hateful Eight (2015), Lincoln (2012), The Mist (2007), Children of Men (2006), Edge of Tomorrow (2014), and Avengers: Age of Ultron (2015), noted authors Geoff King, Guy Westwell, John Shelton Lawrence, Ian Scott, Andrew Schopp, James Kendrick, Sean Redmond, Steffen Hantke, and many others consider the power of popular film to function as a potent cultural artefact able to both reflect the defining fears and anxieties of the tumultuous era but also shape them in compelling and resonant ways.

Literature, Migration and the 'War on Terror' Fiona Tolan, Stephen Morton, Anastasia Valassopoulos, Robert Spencer, 2013-09-13. This is a major new collection of essays on literary and cultural representations of migration and terrorism, the cultural impact of 9/11 and the subsequent war on terror. The collection commences with analyses of the relationship between migration and terrorism, which has been the focus of much mainstream political and media debate since the attacks on America in 2001 and the London bombings in 2005, not least because liberal democratic governments in Europe and North America have invoked such attacks to justify the regulation of migration and the criminalisation of minority groups. Responding to the consequent erosion of the liberal democratic rights of the individual, leading scholars assess the various ways in which literary texts support and/or interrogate the conflation of narratives of transnational migration and perceived terrorist threats to national security. This crucial debate is furthered by contrasting analyses of the manner in which novelists from the UK, North Africa, the US, and Palestine have represented 9/11, exploring the event's contexts and ramifications. This path-breaking study complicates the simplistic narratives of revenge and wronged innocence commonly used to make sense of the attacks and to justify the US response. Each novel discussed seeks to interrogate and analyse a discourse typically dominated by consent, belligerence, and paranoia. Together, the collected essays suggest the value of literature as an effective critical intervention in the very fraught political aftermath of the war on terror. This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing.

Moshin Hamid's "The Reluctant Fundamentalist": North America's Foreign Relations with the Middle East Angela Camara Rojo, 2018-04-26. Essay from the year 2016 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies, Literature grade 9/10 course, Faculty of Letters, language English, abstract. This essay analyses North America's foreign relations with the Middle East before and after the 9/11 attacks in Moshin Hamid's The Reluctant Fundamentalist. This is inherently depicted in personal and professional relations. Namely, the plotline focuses on the life of Changez, a Pakistani immigrant that portrays an Islamic elite dwelling in the US. Following the 9/11 attacks, a growing wave of Islamophobia will emerge, tearing apart Changez's accommodated American lifestyle. Much of this detriment is conveyed by means of Changez's relationship with other characters, especially with Erica, Changez's love interest, a troubled young woman. Erica's character is a symbol for the American nation.
