The Black Brothers:

Black Brother, Black Brother Jewell Parker Rhodes, 2020-03-03 A Junior Library Guild Gold Standard Selection From award winning and bestselling author Jewell Parker Rhodes comes a powerful coming of age story about two brothers one who presents as white the other as black and the complex ways in which they are forced to navigate the world all while training for a fencing competition Framed Bullied Disliked But I know I can still be the best Sometimes 12 year old Donte wishes he were invisible As one of the few black boys at Middlefield Prep most of the students don't look like him They don't like him either Dubbing him Black Brother Donte's teachers and classmates make it clear they wish he were more like his lighter skinned brother Trey When he's bullied and framed by the captain of the fencing team King Alan he's suspended from school and arrested Terrified searching for a place where he belongs Donte joins a local youth center and meets former Olympic fencer Arden Jones With Arden's help he begins training as a competitive fencer setting his sights on taking down the fencing team captain no matter what As Donte hones his fencing skills and grows closer to achieving his goal he learns the fight for justice is far from over Now Donte must confront his bullies racism and the corrupt systems of power that led to his arrest Powerful and emotionally gripping Black Brother Black Brother is a careful examination of the school to prison pipeline and follows one boy's fight against racism and his empowering path to finding his voice Ebony, 1998-05 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Morning Star Rising Camellia Webb-Gannon, 2021-06-30 That Indonesia's ongoing occupation of West Papua continues to be largely ignored by world governments is one of the great moral and political failures of our time West Papuans have struggled for more than fifty years to find a way through the long night of Indonesian colonization However united in their pursuit of merdeka freedom in its many forms what holds West Papuans together is greater than what divides them Today the Morning Star glimmers on the horizon the supreme symbol of merdeka and a cherished sign of hope for the imminent arrival of peace and justice to West Papua Morning Star Rising The Politics of Decolonization in West Papua is an ethnographically framed account of the long bitter fight for freedom that challenges the dominant international narrative that West Papuans quest for political independence is fractured and futile Camellia Webb Gannon's extensive interviews with the decolonization movement's original architects and its more recent champions shed light on complex diasporic and intergenerational politics as well as social and cultural resurgence In foregrounding West Papuans perspectives the author shows that it is the body politic's unflagging determination and hope rather than military might or influential allies that form the movement's most unifying and powerful force for independence This book examines the many intertwining strands of decolonization in Melanesia Differences in cultural performance and political diversity throughout the region are generating new fruitful trajectories Simultaneously Black and Indigenous solidarity and a shared Melanesian identity have forged a transnational grassroots power base from which the movement is gaining momentum Relevant beyond its West Papua focus this book is essential reading for those interested in Pacific studies Native and Indigenous studies development studies activism and decolonization
