Communicating Effectively Saundra Hybels, Richard L. Weaver, II, 1989 Communicating Effectively Saundra Hybels, 1989 Looseleaf for Communicating Effectively Saundra Hybels, Richard Weaver II, 2011-06-30

Communicating Effectively Saundra Hybels, Richard Weaver II, 2008-07-01 Designed for the Introduction to Communication course this trusted text presents the foundation of communication studies through numerous examples that range from the campus to the workplace to communities both in the United States and throughout the world Every chapter contains numerous activities that engage students and promote group work This edition has a new section the Reality Check which challenges students to think more deeply and practically about the ideas concepts and approaches they encounter and to apply them to their lives An Introduction to Communication Studies Sheila Steinberg, 2007 In this introductory textbook the author contextualises approaches and theories on communication studies by making use of local examples from the mass media as well as relevant political and social experiences The book is divided into two parts The first provides students with a strong foundation in communication while the second focuses on the areas of specialisation within communication studies Each chapter starts with the learning Outcomes and a short overview of the chapter Students can monitor their learning by using the summaries and test yourself questions at the end of every chapter Scenarios provide examples of how the theory can be applied in practice This makes for a learner friendly and accessible book which will prove invaluable to Students and professionals alike Beginner students majoring in Communication Studies as well as those studying towards various degrees or qualifications where communication is a prerequisite will find this book useful

Communicating National Integration Osabuohien P. Amienyi, 2016-12-05 This book addresses the negative impact of social cleavages on the development of many African countries It proposes new ideas on how the development crisis in Africa may be addressed by conceptualizing the underlying problem as a communication issue In contrast to the frequent neglect of this key factor this book provides a provocative discussion of how communication strategies can help to promote national integration and social economic and political development It argues that the activities associated with the communication of national integration must be seen as an all encompassing task that transcends official speeches in attempts to persuade a disparate population to cultivate national consciousness Such activities must encompass efforts to persuade leaders to eliminate policies that seek to promote spatial dislocation and cross cultural interaction and to arouse the audience to pay closer attention to integrative messages disseminated through the mass media Cross-cultural Deception in Polish and American English in Computer-Mediated Communication Anna Kuzio, 2018-09-30 Deception is omnipresent throughout the evolution of life inseparable from the development of various modes of communication By effectively manipulating the behavior of others apparently by taking advantage of recipients own rules communicators are able to gain an advantage while negotiating meaning in a cross cultural environment Even though much research related to deceptive behavior and its detection has been conducted in recent years little of it has concentrated on deception outside of a North American context This monograph addresses that lacuna Consistently most research on deception has examined face to face verbal communication and ignored computer mediated communication In response this book also provides detailed insights into how computer mediated communication and adopted cultural values affect deceptive communication and deception detection across cultures namely in Poland and the USA It focuses on discussing theories about why cues to deception exist theories specific to verbal cues to deception and theories about computer mediation in communication The book also proposes a research model postulating relationships between computer mediated communication media cue detection media familiarity national culture espoused cultural values veracity judgment success and deceptive communicative behavior
