Wolfe, 2015 Drawing upon the wisdom of experts in the field this reader friendly volume of Community Psychology edited by Victoria Scott and Susan Wolfe explores both foundational competencies and the technical how to skills needed for engaging in community psychology practice Each chapter explores a core competency and its application in preventing or amending community problems and issues With case examples throughout this book offers a practical introduction to community outreach and intervention in community psychology Guidebook to Community Consulting Susan M. Wolfe, Ann Webb Price, 2023-03-23 Guidebook to Community Consulting provides advice for people interested in starting or growing a career in community consulting Drawing on the authors years of experience as community consultants it offers a wealth of practical guidance to anyone considering or establishing a successful career serving and empowering communities It includes guidance about the personal qualities values and technical skills needed how to start a consulting practice how to collaborate with colleagues and most importantly how to collaborate with communities Practical advice and tips are motivated by core guiding principles and goals including an understanding of consulting as a partnership between consultants and communities decoloniality anti racism and equity The text is animated with illustrative anecdotes and lessons gained from real world experience Emancipatory and Participatory Methodologies in Peace, Critical, and Community Psychology Mohamed Seedat, Shahnaaz Suffla, Daniel J. Christie, 2017-10-17 Offering a unique set of case studies that invites readers to question and reimagine the concept of community engagement this collected work provides an overview and analysis of numerous creative participatory research methods designed to improve well being at both the individual and societal level In a world where there are enormous differences in the wealth and health of people it is increasingly recognized that sustainable peace requires both a broad based public commitment to nonviolence combined with noticeable increments in the wellbeing of people who occupy the lowest socioeconomic strata of societies This volume focuses on the latter how to use qualitative research methods to improve well being of research participants and thus the wider society The participatory research examples described in these chapters are meant to encourage researchers scholars and practitioners to question assumed knowledge about community engagement research and practice and to inspire social justice oriented scholarship The cases studies and methods portrayed are as varied as the situations and cultures in which they take place In most of the case studies the personal is linked to the political with a social justice imperative as participants from marginalized communities express an understanding of their own position within power hierarchies deconstruct power relations and experience a sense of agency In other instances the methods are no less participatory but the aim is more focused on inner and outer harmony psychological wellbeing conflict resolution and intergroup reconciliation In all the cases studies there is a strong emphasis on methods in which community members are at the center of efforts to promote social change The methods described include group storytelling community arts asset mapping dialogues creative writing embroidery filmmaking Photovoice writing back to power and other means of engaging in emancipatory praxis and promoting personal wellbeing Taken together the chapters illustrate creative ways in which community members embedded in disadvantaged contexts can engage in a dynamic process that stimulates individual and collective agency Ultimately this volume will provide readers with a deeper understanding of a wide range of creative qualitative research methods and will encourage establishment of an effective social justice agenda essential to human wellbeing and sustainable peace
