Criticizing Photographs Terry Barrett, 1996 This brief text is designed to help both beginning and advanced students of photography better develop and articulate thoughtful criticism Organized around the major activities of criticism describing interpreting evaluating and theorizing Criticizing Photographs provides a clear framework and vocabulary for students critical skill development The fourth edition includes new black and white and color images updated commentary a completely revised chapter on theory that offers a broad discussion of digital images and an expanded chapter eight on studio critiques and writing about photographs plus examples of student writing and critique

Active Landscape Photography Anne Godfrey, 2022-09-28 How can photography be transformed into an active process of investigation for landscape architecture and environmental design The second book in Godfrey s series Active Landscape Photography presents engaged photographic methods that turn photography into a rigorous thoughtful endeavor for the research planning and design of landscape places Photography is the most ubiquitous and important form of representation in these disciplines Yet photography is not specifically taught as a core skill within these fields This book creates a starting point for filling this gap Concepts and working methods from contemporary photography and critical cultural theories are contextualized into situations encountered in the daily practice of landscape architecture and environmental design These methods can be integrated into practices in academic and professional settings or picked up and self taught by an individual reader Part I Methods presents easily accessible approaches to photography creating a core set of active skills Part II Practices discusses working methods of specific contemporary photographers and extrapolates their practices into common planning and design situations Contemporary photographers presented include Richard Misrach Dawoud Bey Duane Michals Latoya Ruby Frazier Mark Klett Sophie Calle Joe Deal Robert Adams Naima Green Bernd and Hilla Becher Stephen Shore David Hockney Amy Sherald William Christenberry Jeff Wall and Sohei Nishino Beautifully illustrated in full color with over 150 images by Godfrey her students and contemporary photographers this book provides both clear guidelines for a set of diverse methods as well as a deeper discussion about the implications of making and using photography in environmental design for professionals academics students and researchers

Reframing Photography Rebekah Modrak, Bill Anthes, 2011 In an accessible yet complex way Rebekah Modrak and Bill Anthes explore photographic theory history and technique to bring photographic education up to date with contemporary photographic practice

The Public Image Robert Hariman, John Louis Lucaites, 2016-11-07 Even as the media environment has changed dramatically in recent years one thing at least remains true photographs are everywhere From professional news photos to smartphone selfies images have become part of the fabric of modern life And that may be the problem Even as photography bears witness it provokes anxieties about fraudulent representation even as it evokes compassion it prompts anxieties about excessive exposure Parents and pundits alike worry about the unprecedented media saturation that transforms society into an image world And yet a great news photo can still stop us in our tracks and the ever expanding photographic archive documents an era of continuous change By confronting these conflicted reactions to photography Robert Hariman and John Louis Lucaites make the case for a fundamental shift in understanding photography and public culture In place of suspicions about the medium's capacity for distraction deception and manipulation they suggest how it can provide resources for democratic communication and thoughtful reflection about contemporary social problems The key to living well in the image world is to unlock photography from viewing habits that inhibit robust civic spectatorship Through insightful interpretations of dozens of news images The Public Image reveals how the artistry of the still image can inform challenge and guide reflection regarding endemic violence environmental degradation income inequity and other chronic problems that will define the twenty first century By shifting from conventional suspicions to a renewed encounter with the image we are challenged to see more deeply on behalf of a richer life for all and to acknowledge our obligations as spectators who are crucially also citizens

Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 The Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education marks a milestone in the field of art education Sponsored by the National Art Education Association and assembled by an internationally known group of art educators this 36 chapter handbook provides an overview of the remarkable progress that has characterized this field in recent decades Organized into six sections it profiles and integrates the following elements of this rapidly emerging field history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives Because the scholarly foundations of art education are relatively new and loosely coupled this handbook provides researchers students and policymakers both inside and outside the field an invaluable snapshot of its current boundaries and rapidly growing content In a nutshell it provides much needed definition and intellectual respectability to a field that as recently as 1960 was more firmly rooted in the world of arts and crafts than in scholarly research

Artistic Citizenship Mary Schmidt Campbell, Randy Martin, 2006 Artistic Citizenship asks the question how do people in the creative arts prepare for and participate in civic life This volume developed at NYU's Tisch School identifies the question of artistic citizenship to explore civic identity the role of the artist in social and cultural terms With contributions from many connected to the Tisch School including novelist E L Doctorow performance artist Karen Finley theatre guru Richard Schechner and cultural theorist Ella Shohat this book is indispensable to anyone involved in arts education or the creation of public policy for the arts

Online Evaluation of Creativity and the Arts Hiesun Cecilia Suhr, 2014-08-21 Social media have dramatically popularized practices of evaluation especially of cultural products and artistic expressions The practices of liking and rating any shared contents such as music to blogs film videos photographs to artwork and performances are ubiquitous in today's digital environments As a result creative producers are increasingly developing reputations and careers through a complex blend of online social reputation management and distribution platforms and more longstanding forms of marketing channels and professional evaluation In this context Online Evaluation of Creativity and the Arts seeks to examine the newly emerging forms of evaluation such as contests competitions ranking commenting liking and rating which are taking place in digital environments In doing so this book investigates the criteria and assessment practices tied to the evaluation of creativity and artistic works and further questions what is at stake when digital environments heighten the role of amateur and peer criticism to the level of expert critiques While exploring potential informal learning opportunities and offering incisive critiques on the emerging norms and standards of evaluation the essays in this book cover a wide range of artistic and creative practices

Why is that Art? Terry Barrett, 2008 Why Is That Art addresses common questions that viewers raise about contemporary art Why is that art Why is it in an art museum Who says it's art If I did this would it be art Why is it good Covering a broad diverse and engaging sampling of works abstract and representational painting monumental sculpture performance art video installations films and photographs author Terry Barrett responds to these questions using three sources the artists who created the works philosophers of art and art critics Introducing students to a variety of established theories of art he presents the traditional sets of criteria of Realism Expressionism and Formalism which are in turn updated by recent sources of Poststructuralism Barrett applies each of these theories to challenging works of contemporary art pointing out the strengths and weaknesses of each mode of interpretation

He encourages students to consider many criteria when evaluating an artwork to critically examine judgments made by others and to make informed judgments of their own. Ideal for courses in aesthetics, art theory, art criticism, and the philosophy of art. Why Is That Art is organized chronologically according to the history of aesthetics. It features sixty-seven illustrations, twenty-six in a full-color insert, and discusses a wide range of American and European artists and includes an exceptional overview of postmodern pluralism. This unique book will provide students with a newfound appreciation for contemporary art scholarship and reasoned argumentation, giving them the confidence to join the fascinating discourse on contemporary art.

The Journal of Aesthetic Education, 1992. Includes special issues: Introduction to Photography Marvin J. Rosen, 1993; Art Criticism and Education Theodore F. Wolff, George Geahigan, 1997. In this concluding volume of the series Disciplines in Art Education, an author, art critic, and an art educator discuss the place of art criticism in the classroom. Studies in Art Education, 2000; Archivaria, 1995; Paperbound Books in Print, 1992; Laura Letinsky Laura Letinsky, Karen Irvine, 2005. This edition features the exact same content as the traditional text in a convenient three-hole punched loose-leaf version. Books à la Carte also offer a great value: this format costs 35% less than a new textbook.

The Fourth Edition of World Regions in Global Context retains its strong global sensibility and its emphasis on current concerns with models of interdependent development, spatial and social inequality, and questions of spatial justice. This revision is more user-friendly in the organization of the material in each chapter. The authors maintain that regions are the outcomes of a set of world-spanning systems; therefore, each regional chapter stresses the global systems of connection that drive unique regional processes, thus making regions different. By studying regions, you will not only learn the critical elements of different places but also come to understand the fundamental processes that drive change.
