

In many organisations, middle management positions can be difficult, especially during periods of significant change. While trying to do their best to implement changes imposed by senior management, they may realise that promoting the interests of the organisation often conflicts with their own best interests, and those of their colleagues and subordinates. Such realisations can sometimes result in high levels of additional stress for those managers. No effective solution to this problem has been found and, if the way in which most organisations operate does not change in some relevant way soon, it is likely that we will see an increase in absenteeism and turnover amongst middle managers.
