Todaro,Stephen C. Smith,2006 Todaro and Smith believe that development economics should foster a student s ability to understand real problems faced by developing countries Unlike other texts Economic Development introduces economic models within the context of countries and issues so that students learn to analyze and engage in the ongoing policy debates Praised for its even balanced coverage the text helps students to evaluate issues using the best available cross sectional data economic theory and institutional and structural perspectives Keeping pace with current data and events the Ninth Edition includes the latest research in development as well as extensive country specific examples of topics such as transition economics and urban policy Reorganization from four parts to three provides a more streamlined sequencing for economic development courses All new country case studies target pertinent issues such as Divergent Development Pakistan and Bangladesh and Understanding a Development Miracle China Thoroughly updated and revised comparison case studies provide the most current illustrations of policy and its outcomes major development organizations New research on rural development economics and the green revolution in Chapter 9 Extended coverage of non governmental organizations and how they compare with government and private sectors in Chapter 11 Political Economy and the Roles of Market Chapter 14 takes a critical look at the World Bank and the burden of debt Economic Development in the Middle East Rodney Wilson,2021-09-23 This new edition examines how development in the Middle East is being influenced by global economic change This comparative textbook focuses on the region s strengths and highlights development success especially in the Gulf Turkey and Israel The major structural changes in the economies of the Middle East are analysed and current employment challenges are discussed The impact of demographic changes is considered notably the dramatic decline in birth rates which will have implications for future employment The contribution of banks and capital markets to the region s development is appraised including that of Islamic financial institutions which play a prominent role in the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries but are on the margins of the financial systems elsewhere Historically development in the GCC was linked to oil and gas production and prices a key issue being whether these are being decoupled as economies diversify and become more self sustaining The evidence on this from the GCC is encouraging with transparent and accountable financial management and major improvements in economic governance despite the lack of democracy Examining the drivers of economic development in the Middle East in a regional and global context this fully updated textbook is a key resource for students and academics interested in economic development and the political economy of the Middle East

A Study of Labor Mobility in China Sun

Wenkai,2021-12-30 The title investigates rural labor mobility in China since 2003 an important phenomenon in the process of Chinese economic transition influential in economic growth at the macro level and individual wellbeing at the micro level Based on empirical analysis the study identifies and evaluates the characteristics driving forces and impact of the migration and mobility of the rural labor force The following factors are considered to impact rural workers mobility decisions and are thoroughly discussed in each chapter 1 convergence in the level of regional income 2 industrial structure and the age structure of the workforce 3 the household registration system 4 the income gap 5 the issue of children that are left behind 6 the health status of rural migrant workers and 7 their social networks Drawing on new research methods the final chapter reassesses the impact of rural parents migration to the city and the overall wellbeing of their children left behind at home challenging the well accepted view that there is a negative correlation between the two The book will appeal to scholars and students interested in labor economics Chinese economy sociology demography migrant population and especially labor mobility in China

A Macroeconomic Model of Papua New Guinea C. Kannapiran,1998 Bibliographic Guide to Education ,1984 Maritime Cabotage Law Aniekan Akpan,2018-12-17 This is the most comprehensive review of maritime cabotage law It introduces the new theory of Developmental Sovereignty to jurisprudence The maritime cabotage law provisions and approaches as adopted in many states and jurisdictions has been extensively scrutinised This book challenges the established and accepted wisdom surrounding maritime cabotage by presenting new reasoning on the underpinning principles of the concept of maritime cabotage law The book offers a vibrant discussion on the adjustment in the regulatory approaches of maritime cabotage from one that was intrinsically premised on the idea of national sovereignty to one that now embraces the broader ideology of development It investigates what the common understanding of the law of maritime cabotage should be and on what intellectual basis it can be justified It reduces the inconsistencies and confusion that surround the concept and application of maritime cabotage law to provide a more certain and more robust concept of maritime cabotage
