The Glory of the Vision, Vol. I Richard Schaefer, 2015-11-16 From humble beginnings Loma Linda University Health has grown to become a major health care and educational center impacting people around the world Back in 1905 pioneer Seventh day Adventist Ellen G White insisted that such an institution be established somewhere in Southern California near Redlands and Riverside She also predicted properties would become available that were far below their initial price Fellow Adventist pioneer John Burden found a property that had failed in two previous business ventures first as a hotel then as a sanitarium The asking price was already well below the property s value and the buildings were already fully furnished and stocked Make an offer White told him With his own money as down payment Burden set in motion what has become a network of multiple hospitals and professional schools Miracle upon miracle was needed to keep the fledgling organization afloat Be inspired by the way the hand of Providence has and continues to work on behalf of Loma Linda Ellen G. White, Co-founder of the Seventh-day Adventist Church Roy E. Graham, 1985 Seventh day Adventism is inextricably linked with the life and ministry of Ellen G White This study examines her role in the church both in her lifetime and since her death in 1915 through her voluminous writings The passage of time and the general ecumenical climate of today make possible a more dispassionate study of White s work and insights which hold value for the whole Christian Church especially in the eschatological emphasis which lies at the center of her work The Triangle of Education. A Proposed Theory Applicable to a New People in a New World through the Gospel of Jesus Eric S. Mbuh, 2019-08-21 Academic Paper from the year 2019 in the subject Theology Miscellaneous grade 92 56 course Christian Philosophy of Education language English abstract The Creator and designer of education had made it to work as a whole The different philosophies he gave man was to help control the different multifaceted sectors of education in general and more specifically the transformation of an individual in the society Although learning is often seen as the main focal point the education process consists of three equally important pillars that form the triangle of effective education that fits within the intersection of the spheres of the community of inquiry framework The basic pillars expand to formal informal and Non Formal This study is a short explanation of how these three pillars form a basic framework for effective theological training This is a qualitative study using a philosophical and analytical research design and illuminate evaluation as research method This is a proposed theory for effective higher education in Theology and any higher institutions The triangle of education is formed by formal informal and non formal These are the models God is using to transform every area of the society and humans as well
