Professions William Roth, Katharine Briar-Lawson, 2011-04-28 This landmark book brings together the reality of globalization and the imperative for social justice for helping professionals and students Helping professions such as social work counseling and community building in non profit agencies NGOs and government and the people and needs they serve can no longer be understood outside a global framework While the very notion of helping professions is entails a social justice perspective the relationship between the effects of globalization and the requirements of social justice have been missing from the literature education and practice of these fields This book provides an understanding of the economic and social dimensions of globalization how globalization increases the interdependence of nations the particular risks and opportunities it presents and how some aspects of globalization can exacerbate oppression and marginalization There are particular explorations of the challenges globalization presents in Africa and South America and a consideration of the special needs of children and families in the global context This is a necessary volume Its distinguished contributors have various perspectives on globalization but all write to inform and assist the work of those whose vocation is to help others

The Reinventors Jason Jennings, 2012-05-10 For most businesses success is fleeting There are only two real choices stick with the status quo until things inevitably decline or continuously change to stay vital But how Bestselling leadership and management guru Jason Jennings and his researchers screened 22 000 companies around the world that had been cited as great examples of reinvention They selected the best verified their success interviewed their leaders and learned how they pursue never ending radical change The fresh insights they discovered became Jennings's reinvention rules for any business The featured companies include Starbucks which turned itself around by making tons of small bets on new ideas Fresher store designs better food products and free Wi Fi were a few of the results Apollo Tyres which launched the Apollo Academy to train everyone and reinvented how it finds keeps and grows people It went from five hundred million to two billion in annual sales in only a few years Arrow Electronics which found success by solving problems that drove its customers crazy and has become a twenty billion dollar electronics giant by shifting its focus from selling commodities to custom tailoring solutions Smithfield Foods which faced a PR crisis over the way it slaughtered animals and polluted the environment and transformed itself by hiring an environmental activist and empowering him to transform the company's ethos If you're ready to toss same old same old out the door The Reinventors will become your road map to successfully pursuing continuous change It will help your company stay relevant for years to come Using the Power of Purpose Dean E.

Tucker,2008-04-07 This book is about three challenges facing business today First is the coming huge labor shortage as Baby Boomer Generation retires For every 5 Boomers that retire there will only be 4 Generation X or Yers to replace them The second challenge is that Generations X and Y will be difficult to attract and retain because these generations 1 Are not loyal to companies and do not trust management 2 Demand balance between their personal and professional lives 3 Do not fear losing a job 4 Will quit when management or the work environment is not to their liking These generations are not intimidated by management and will not put up with the management by fear techniques used in many companies today If they are not treated with respect provided with flexibility in hours and scheduling or do not like their manager they will quickly leave The third challenge is the fact the arrival of the information age has rendered the profit driven Bureaucratic Management System which was created between 1850 and 1920 obsolete It is inefficient and cumbersome when dealing with the issues of adaptability teamwork employee empowerment productivity and innovation that are needed today's business environment For example the Bureaucratic Management System is designed to resist change and maintain the status quo but the need today is for rapid adaptability so that business can be responsive to the ever changing demands of the customer Is there a solution for these challenges The answer is emphatically YES The solution is to overcome bureaucracy by transitioning to a new information age purpose driven business model and achieve extraordinary levels of productivity and financial success See how over 50 companies have utilized the power of purpose to outperform their peers by a factor of 6 to 1
