Loesch, 1998 This book contains 365 experiments that are inexpensive and use easy-to-find materials, brief instructions, safety guidelines, and over 700 instructive illustrations 365 More Simple Science Experiments Judy Breckenridge, 1998 Janice VanCleave's Super Science Models Janice VanCleave, 2004-08-18 Learn a lot about science as you make models showing how things work. A spectacular model of an active volcano, a fascinating representation of the solar system, scale reproductions of atoms and molecules. In Janice VanCleave's Super Science Models, America's favorite science teacher shows you how to make these and other eye-catching science models that will help you show what you know in class or at a science fair. Inside you'll find easy-to-follow instructions for 25 great models that reveal the worlds of astronomy, biology, chemistry, earth science, and physics. You'll also get helpful hints on displaying your models, including advice on backboards, scale models, stands, and other clever techniques. As with all of Janice VanCleave's books, every project can be created at home or in the classroom with safe, inexpensive materials. Through models of Earth's layers, the states of matter, an electric circuit, and much more, you'll discover how scientists use models to make it easier to describe things and share their ideas. So get ready to have a great time and impress others with what you've learned making these fun, fabulous models. Homeschooling and Libraries Vera Gubnitskaia, Carol Smallwood, 2020-04-20 As families are looking for better ways to educate their children, more and more of them are becoming interested and engaged in alternative ways of schooling that are different, separate, or opposite of the traditional classroom. Homeschooling has become ever more creative and varied as families create custom-tailored curricula, assignments, goals, and strategies that are best for each unique child. This presents a multitude of challenges and opportunities for information institutions, including public academic school and special libraries. The need for librarians to help homeschool families become information and media literate is more important than ever. This collection of essays provides a range of approaches and strategies suggested by skilled professionals as well as veteran homeschool parents on how to best serve the diverse needs and learning
