

The Czech Campaign in Lombardy I

The mighty Emperor Frederick, known as Barbarossa, decided to invade the country of Lombardy, for the elders and burghers there were ignoring the imperial charter, dishonouring it and diminishing imperial power. And also because the treacherous Vlachs wanted to agree a pact with the Pope against the Emperor and to usurp his power.

Knowing well the courage and skill of the Bohemian warriors, the Emperor asked the Czech Prince Vladislav of the House of Premisl for the support of his troops in the campaign. In return for his aid, the Emperor let the Bohemian Prince be crowned and issue a royal edict, so that the Czechs would have a king of their own. So the Emperor did in January of the year MCLVIII.

In the year thereafter the Emperor and his forces marched on Lombardy to bring order to the country and especially to humble the rich and glorious City of Milan, where the greatest insurrection was underway. Here, too, the Czech went of great help, bravely fighting the Vlachs wherever they encountered them.
