STEAM Program with Great Literature and Activities Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2018-06-01 You've created a STEAM program in your library but how do you work literacy into the curriculum? With this collection of resource recommendations, direction for program development and activities, you'll have students reading proficiently in no time. Many schools and libraries are implementing STEAM programs in the school library makerspace to promote problem solving by allowing students to create their own solutions to a problem through trial and error. In order to enhance literacy development in the STEAM program, however, they need resources for integrating literature into the curriculum. In this collection of resources for doing just that, veteran education professionals and practiced coauthors Liz Knowles and Martha Smith bring readers over eight hundred recommended and annotated books and web resources selected based on research on successfully integrating STEAM and literacy programs and organized by the five STEAM areas. Titles are complemented by discussion questions and problem solving activities that will aid educators in both adding and using the best literature to their STEAM programs for encouraging learning. In addition to promoting literacy, these resources will help to develop creativity, lateral thinking skills, and confidence in students.

New Techniques for Wearable Art, Crafters are altering everything: clothing, shoes, handbags, journals, and much more. They start with an existing item, a cotton jumper or a jean jacket, and embellish or alter it in a variety of ways to make it something new. Altered Art is the newest trend in the art and craft world. The first section of the book features tips and techniques that show how to do various creative alterations on fabric: ripping, tearing, painting, and dyeing; beading; adding images and letters; and adding hardware such as grommets, snaps, jewels, and more. The second section of the book includes 30 altered clothing and accessory projects the avid crafter can make at home. Step-by-step photography details the techniques, and large, vibrant color photos of finished projects show off the fashionable projects. The book is filled with accessible, idea-inspiring projects for people interested in creating their own look.

The Medical Library Association Guide to Cancer Information Ruti Malis Volk, 2007 According to the American Cancer Society, over 10 million Americans have a history of cancer, and the over 100 distinct forms of cancer affect those individuals and their families in very different ways. When patrons come to your library with cancer-related questions, will you be prepared with the best resources for them to consult? Now the Medical Library Association and Ruti Volk, Manager of the Patient Education Resource Center at the University of Michigan's Comprehensive Cancer Center, have assembled an authoritative guide to the best cancer information resources for all levels of readers. Chapters are devoted to both specific types of cancer: breast, brain, colon, liver, lung, lymphoma, melanoma, childhood cancers, and more, and cancer-related topics: chemotherapy, radiation, herbal supplements, nutrition, fertility, talking with children about cancer, etc. and contain a general introduction to the topic with an overview of the information needs of patients and caregivers. For each type of cancer, the author provides an invaluable annotated list of resources including pamphlets, brochures, consumer health titles, book chapters, reference sources, videos, CD-ROMs, Web sites, and more that incorporates both introductory works and more advanced treatments. Additional resources such as cancer patient organizations and online listservs are also featured Whether utilizing as an aid in cancer related searches or as a tool for building a consumer health collection this unique guide will help any public academic or medical library better meet the health information needs of their users
