A Comparative History of the Literary Draft in Europe Olga Beloborodova, Dirk Van Hulle, 2024-11-15 Literary drafts are a constant in literatures of all ages and linguistic areas and yet their role in writing processes in various traditions has seldom been the subject of systematic comparative scrutiny In 38 chapters written by leading experts in many different fields this book charts a comparative history of the literary draft in Europe and beyond It is organised according to eight categories of comparison distributed over the volume's two parts devoted respectively to Text i e the textual aspects of creative processes and Beyond Text i e aspects of creative processes that are not necessarily textual Across geographical temporal linguistic generic and media boundaries to name but a few this book uncovers idiosyncrasies and parallels in the surviving traces of human creativity while drawing the reader's attention to the materiality of literary drafts and the ephemerality of the writing process they capture

Translation and Modernism Emily O. Wittman, 2023-12-08 This innovative volume extends existing conversations on translation and modernism with an eye toward bringing renewed attention to its ethically complex appropriative nature and the subsequent ways in which modernist translators become co creators of the materials they translate Wittman builds on existing work at the intersection of the two fields to offer a more dynamic nuanced and wider lens on translation and modernism The book draws on scholarship from descriptive translation studies polysystems theory and literary translation to explore modernist translators appropriation of source texts and their continuous recalibrations of equivalence between source text and translation Chapters focus on translation projects from a range of writers including Beckett Garnett Lawrence Mansfield and Rhys with a particular spotlight on how women's translations and women translators innovations were judged more critically than those of their male counterparts Taken together the volume puts forth a fresh perspective on translation and modernism and of the role of the modernist translator as co creator in the translation process This book will be of particular interest to scholars in
