Reference and Information Services Melissa A. Wong, Laura Saunders, 2024-08-22 Written as a textbook for LIS students taking reference courses this fully updated and revised seventh edition of Reference and Information Services An Introduction also serves as a helpful handbook for practitioners to refamiliarize themselves with particular types and formats of sources and to refresh their knowledge on specific service topics The first section grounds the rest of the textbook with an overview of the foundations of reference and an introduction to the theories values and standards that guide reference service The second section provides an overview of reference services and techniques for service provision establishing a foundation of knowledge on reference service and extending ethical and social justice perspectives The third part offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information followed by an in depth examination of information sources by type as well as by broad subject areas Finally the concluding section guides the reader through the process of developing and maintaining their own vision of reference practice This textbook is essential reading for all preservice and working librarians particularly those concerned with ethical and social justice perspectives on reference work Young Adult Library Services Anthony Bernier, Shari Lee, 2024-04-26 Finally a single volume that comprehensively introduces and addresses the most pressing issues and opportunities in young adult teen library services Perpetually in the shadow of service to children and historically riven by fractious relationships between public and school libraries young adult services continue to suffer inadequacies and inequities of all kinds Consequently this area of specialization remains without the capacity to build the institutional political cultural or professional influence needed to grow and develop beyond ritual and repetition Young Adult Services Challenges and Opportunities COYAS begins to address these inequities by preparing professionals In COYAS LIS youth services instructors especially those in the United States and Canada will find a single broad and diverse engagement with scholars and acknowledged experts on the most pressing issues confronting YA services today Students at both graduate and undergraduate levels will benefit from the field tested topics delivered through accessible treatments Practicing YA and youth librarians will appreciate the support and evidence based analysis they likely found lacking in their MLIS programs Earnest youth advocates will value the pursuit of issues beyond cliché and perpetual crash course entry level conversations In addition instructors and students will both value the brevity of concisely focused chapters sectional introductions as well as the study guide questions that conclude each chapter Content areas include history and critical engagement with foundational concepts in YA services current practices regarding challenges and opportunities as well as forward leaning issues for future development of the field COYAS will ultimately empower librarians in delivering professional grade information services to improve the quality of young people s experience in this important cultural institution Mujeres entre oriente y occidente: una aproximación crítica feminista a la literatura universal Leticia de la Paz De Dios, Ana María Crespo Gómez, 2024-12-26 El presente monográfico aspira a actuar como un puente entre literaturas diversas escritas por autoras cuyas experiencias podr an parecer a primera vista distantes o desconectadas entre s Qu puntos en com n podr an hallarse entre Sylvia Plath y Bing Xin O entre Fatema Mernissi y Marjorie Agos n La distancia geogr fica entre sus lugares de origen o las diferencias ling sticas que las separan son respuestas demasiado evidentes para negar la posibilidad de establecer ese puente entre Oriente y Occidente que se propone en esta obra Invitamos pues a las lectoras a identificar respuestas m s precisas y objetivas tras la lectura de los cap tulos que se presentan a continuaci n

Reading Russian Literature, 1980–2024 Otto Boele, Dorine Schellens, 2024-10-09 This edited collection focuses on the nexus between literary consumption memory and collective identity formation in Russia from the 1980s until today It challenges perceived notions about the reduced social significance and identity building potential of contemporary Russian literature Drawing on a diverse set of primary source materials ranging from memoirs diaries and essays to fan art and BookToks the collection seeks to do justice to the diversity of an enormous reading public that is often routinely referred to as the Russian reader The case studies explore the reading habits and self understanding of very different audiences that are dispersed along regional gender generational and technological divides In doing so this collection examines both the continuities and shifts in the multifaceted relationship between literary consumption memory and identity during the profound and ongoing transformations in Russian society and its literary landscape
