The Expert

by Ernest Inger

1. "The fishermen were surprised the level of their harvest of fish was so much better than they had expected. They wanted to know why. The fishermen had fished in the same area before. The reason was simple. The wind and the waves gave them a better chance to catch more fish than they had before."

2. "The fishermen were not alone in their surprise. The fishermen had been surprised by the weather. The fishermen had fished in the same area before. The reason was simple. The wind and the waves gave them a better chance to catch more fish than they had before."
