Internet Chicago Manual Of Style:

Internet Research Skills Niall Ó Dochartaigh, 2012-05-17 Internet Research Skills is a clear concise guide to effective online research for social science and humanities students. The first half of the book deals with publications online devoting separate chapters to academic articles, books, official publications and news sources which form the core secondary sources for social science research. The second half of the book deals with the open web, a vast and confusing realm of materials many of which have no direct print counterpart. The third edition has been updated throughout and now includes coverage of cutting edge online services as well as newly developed approaches to using online materials, a new chapter on organising your research and internet research methods, additional material on the use of social networks for research, illustrations, examples and short exercises to help you put what you learn into practice. Internet Research Skills is an invaluable guide for undergraduate students carrying out research projects and for postgraduate students working on theses and dissertations.

The Complete Beginner's Guide to Genealogy, the Internet, and Your Genealogy Computer Program Karen Clifford, 2001. Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones, 2013-12-16. In the first book of its kind, art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats: print sources, CD-ROMs, documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results. The book is divided into three sections: Basic Information, Formats, Types of Websites and How to Find Them, and How to Use Web Information. Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites; scholarly and basic information resources are noted and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included. Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art, historical styles, artists working in various media, individual works of art and non-Western cultures, as well as art education, writing about art, problems of copyright and issues concerning the buying and selling of art. This title will be periodically updated.
