Management Theories For Educational Change:

Management Theories for Educational Change Keith Morrison, 1998-10-28 This is an exceptional book It tempted me to throw out most of my collected works on the management of change because the author has somehow succeeded by including almost every aspect of educational change that any practitioner would wish to consider Overall this is a very stimulating book It is packed with information and the ideas and concepts contained could pack a school development plan for many years School Leadership and Management The theories and practices from the literature on business manufacturing and commerce which inform principles for managing change in education are identified in this book The author shows how the complexity of change can be addressed effectively One principle of effective management of change is its potential to empower the individuals and organizations its power to create and operate win win situations That can only be done by addressing the human side of organizations The strength of the business literature is that far from advocating the austere over rationalized dehumanized and objective pursuit of profit at all costs it suggests that the effective management of change is an affirmation of the humanity of business

Education and Technology for a Better World Arthur Tatnall, Anthony Jones, 2009-07-03 Education and Technology for a Better World was the main theme for WCCE 2009 The conference highlights and explores different perspectives of this theme covering all levels of formal education as well as informal learning and societal aspects of education The conference was open to everyone involved in education and training Additionally players from technological societal business and political fields outside education were invited to make relevant contributions within the theme Education and Technology for a Better World For several years the WCCE World Conference on Computers in Education has brought benefits to the fields of computer science and computers and education as well as to their communities The contributions at WCCE include research projects and good practice presented in different formats from full papers to posters demonstrations panels workshops and symposiums The focus is not only on presentations of accepted contributions but also on discussions and input from all participants The main goal of these conferences is to provide a forum for the discussion of ideas in all areas of computer science and human learning They create a unique environment in which researchers and practitioners in the fields of computer science and human learning can interact exchanging theories experiments techniques applications and evaluations of initiatives supporting new developments that are potentially relevant for the development of these fields They intend to serve as reference guidelines for the research community
