Students of color and those of lower economic backgrounds and of underrepresented groups appear to face a disadvantage when they transition from high schools into colleges These students tend to have lower academic preparation than white students which leads to higher levels of stress and anxiety as well as an increased placement in remedial courses which negatively impacts their graduation rates As institutions become aware of these facts and take appropriate measures to improve educational experiences they must implement Transparency in Learning and Teaching TILT initiatives in order to provide equal access to education

Integrating Transparency in Learning and Teaching TILT An Effective Tool for Providing Equitable Opportunity in Higher Education provides information on Transparency in Learning and Teaching TILT concepts and how they can be used in course development to improve student learning and performance It focuses on bringing positive learning experiences to college students especially first generation students which can lead to higher levels of academic success It strongly advocates for transparent education and provides guidance for overcoming the existing accessibility gap in higher education
