Countering Mission Drift in a Faith-based Organization Peirong Lin, 2019-09-27 This book presents the case study of World Vision as a useful contribution in the discussion of mission drift a common phenomenon facing faith based organizations Mission drift has been categorised as a drifting away from the organization s founding mission purpose and identity Practical theological interpretation is undertaken in this case study There are four phases involved in this approach design collection analysis and recommendation In the first phase design the key terms of the dissertation are explicated One key model used is the identity formation model of organizations In the second phase collection the actual collection of the empirical research is documented Empirical research was done in two separate locations where World Vision worked in Papua New Guinea and Nepal In the third phase analyzing the findings of the empirical research are analysed firstly using the identity formation model and more normatively through the use of the normative practice model In the final phase recommendations are made in light of the analysis These recommendations are also framed using the identity formation model with content and process recommendations given

Qualitative Interviews. Conducting interviews as a means of qualitative study. Main types of interviews Leo Decher, 2017-11-22 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Communications Research Studies Enquiries grade 1 7 Friedrich Alexander

University Erlangen Nuremberg language English abstract With regard to educational income and school development technological progress offers increasing possibilities in the fields of knowledge transfer and classroom management This is especially reflected in so called iPad classes that were initiated at the Realschule Those classes are part of a pilot experiment in the Bavarian mainstream system According to the school s website the desired advantages are amongst others fast availability in group work periods reinforcing medial competence individual learning and quick access to educational contents from the internet I came to visit such classes during my first student internship in 2013 Now that a couple of years have passed I aim to find out in how far teachers and pupils think that it had been a good choice for them to take part in this project Therefore I am going to conduct interviews with both a participating teacher and two students The interviews will cover advantages and disadvantages that come to the interviewees minds concerning the daily use of tablet computers at school as well as ideas the respondents have to keep improving the educational contact with innovative learning tools such as iPads This research will be prepared conducted and evaluated on a qualitative level

Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Ngozi Edeagu, Egodi Uchendu, 2021-08-26 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Discourses Practices and Policies examines the entrenchment of patriarchy in Africa and its attendant socioeconomic and political consequences on gender relations The contributors analyze the historical and modern ways in which gender expectations have enabled women in African societies to be systematically abused and marginalized from unpaid labor to poor representation in decision making areas Exploring regions such as rural Uganda the suburbs of Zimbabwe the Gold Coast South Africa and Nigeria contributors incorporate a wide range of academic theories and disciplines to establish the need for improved policy implementation on gender issues at both the local and national government levels in Africa

Researching Translation and Interpreting Claudia V. Angelelli, Brian James Baer, 2015-07-16 This volume offers a comprehensive view of current research directions in Translation and Interpreting Studies outlining the theoretical concepts underpinning that research and presenting detailed discussions of the various methods used Organized around three factors that are responsible for shaping the study of translation and interpreting today post positivist theoretical approaches developments in the language industry and technological innovations this volume is divided into three parts Part I introduces the basic concepts organizing translation and interpreting research such as the difference between qualitative and quantitative research between product oriented and process oriented studies and between prescriptive and descriptive approaches Part II provides a theoretical mapping of current translation and interpreting research covering the theories underlying the current conceptualization of translation and interpreting from queer studies to cognitive science Part III explores the key methodological approaches to research in Translation and Interpreting Studies including corpus based longitudinal observational and ethnographic studies as well as survey and focus group based studies The international range of contributors are all leading research experts who use the methodologies in their work They present the research aims of these methods offer sample research questions that can and cannot be addressed by these methods and discuss modes of data collection and analysis This is an essential reference for all advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in Translation and Interpreting Studies Fashion and Its Multi-Cultural Facets Patricia Hunt-Hurst, Sabrina Ramsamy-Iranah, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Fashion is multi faceted in its inclusion of people places and products How people dress and adorn themselves reflect their space their time and their innovators This collection of essays reflects the changing world of fashion from historic topics of change to new fashion places to new media outlets for fashion communication and to critical issues related to comfort ethics and innovation The authors examine familiar names of fashion like Coco Chanel and Tim Walker and introduce us to new names like Ann Lowe Tommaso Cecchi De Rossi and Warwick Freeman The contributors to this collection represent a variety of places Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America and share their observations studies and experiences from the perspective of their cultural backgrounds and disciplines Real World Research Colin Robson, 2002-03-20 This successful text on carrying out research in real world situations has been thoroughly revised and updated in order to make it as useful as possible to teachers and students from a range of behavioral and social science disciplines Includes new examples from applied psychology applied social science health studies social work and education Provides more coverage of qualitative methods Pedagogical material has been updated to include a glossary and detailed cross referencing across chapters Bases the quantitative analysis section around version 10 of SPSS and the section on qualitative analysis around the NUD IST software Situates material more clearly within theoretical conceptualizations of the nature of social science research pointing to the advantages of a critical realist approach For sample chapters please visit www.blackwellpublishing.com/robson Methodological Thinking in Psychology Aaro Toomela, Jaan Valsiner, 2010-05-27 This book addresses dissatisfaction with current psychology methods highlighting the tension between quantitative and qualitative approaches It emphasizes the importance of historical knowledge in psychology featuring contributions from leading scholars in various fields International Organizations and Post-Soviet Conflicts in Georgia, Moldova, and Ukraine Nina Lutterjohann, 2024-08-06 International Organizations and Post Soviet Conflicts in Georgia Moldova and Ukraine The Limitations of Imagining Peace and the Failure and Success in Negotiations addresses the protracted history of international conflict resolution efforts to the Georgian Abkhaz Moldovan Transnistrian and Eastern Ukraine conflicts The author explores the origins and onset of these first two conflicts in the early 1990s but also looks at the eruption of conflict in Eastern Ukraine in 2014 and at the first months after the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022 This book shows how from a conflict transformation perspective local vested interests and strategic interests have created obvious obstructions that have both fueled the conflicts and prevented their resolution This volume develops a comprehensive theoretical framework for understanding the success and failure of international engagement that offers a new understanding of the extent to which international responses may or may not be helpful Through an analysis of over 500 closed source documents and about 70 interviews the efforts of pan European international organizations with mandates from the OSCE EU UN and NATO are examined on both political and cultural levels This work s innovative analyses of those institutions performances shows how successes have often been overlooked and identifies misperceptions that reshape our understanding of the limitations to imagining peace
