Traditions Redirecting Contemporary Indonesian Cultural Productions Jan van der Putten, Edwin P. Wieringa, 2017-08-21 This volume is the result of a conference held in October 2015 in connection with the Frankfurt Book Fair discussing developments that are considered important in contemporary Indonesian cultural productions The first part of the book reflects on the traumatic experiences of the Indonesian nation caused by a failed coup on October 1 1965 In more general theoretical terms this topic connects to the field of memory studies which in recent decades has made an academic comeback The focus of the chapters in this section is how certain often distressing events are represented in narratives in a variety of media that are periodically renewed changed rehearsed repeated and performed in order to become or stay part of the collective memory of a certain group of people The second part of the book explores how forces of globalisation have impacted upon the local and linguistically surprisingly rather homogeneous cultural productions of Indonesia The main strands of inquiry in this second section are topics of global trends in religion responses to urban development the impact of popular literary developments and how traditions are revisited in order to come to terms with international cultural developments
