

Age of Reformation

Chapter 11

DIFFERENTIATE THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS BY EITHER USING HIGHLIGHTING OR USING A DIFFERENT COLOR FOR THE ANSWER.

Section 0 (page 347): Perspective.

Very Important Introduction to the Chapter.

Read it carefully if you want a clue as to what the chapter is about.

Section 1: Society and Religion

The Point of the Section: Changes don't just happen in a vacuum. Ideas spread when the outside world is ready for change, and people support religious ideas for a variety of reasons (most of which are not for the spiritual truths being taught).

The Above sentences are intellectual landmarks. If you doubt it, just apply the logic to your own convictions.

1. What were some of the non-spiritual motives that you can see here for supporting Luther?

Section 2: Martin Luther & German Reformation

Intro:

All the first paragraph is saying is that Germans were beginning to resent a "foreign" Church. The rest is a rather lame description of Luther: blah blah blah

Justification by Faith Alone:

1. What was Luther's opinion of Salvation compared with the Church's?

The Attack on Indulgences

2. After reading this section, do you feel your author personally agrees with Luther's opinions or the Church's?

Example? Explain

The Last Paragraph is the most important so far. It marks the BEGINNING of the Reformation! It's a revolutionary act that your book glosses over. sigh.

Luther's Excommunication

3. Luther eventually attacked what other beliefs of the Church?

4. What action did the CHURCH take in 1520/21?

5. What action did the Emperor (Charles V) take in 1521?

6. What did Luther do at Wartburg Castle?

Imperial Distractions

7. Why did it take so long for Emperor to react to this rebellion?

How the Reformation Spread?

8. What is the connection between Gutenberg and Luther?

The Peasant's Revolt

9. Why did Luther claim to oppose the Peasant demands/revolt?
