CANADA DAY

Canada Day is on 1 July. Every year on this day, Canadians celebrate the start of their country in 1867. There are celebrations in every town and city in Canada. It's a holiday, so people don't work on Canada Day, and students don't go to school.

The day usually starts with a big breakfast. Later there are parades and dancing in the streets. A lot of people play sports on this day, too. In the evening, people don't usually have dinner in their houses – they have a barbecue in their gardens. At night some people go out to city squares or parks to watch fireworks or listen to music.

Canada Day is an enormous celebration of Canadian history and culture. A lot of people call it 'Canada's birthday'. Like a birthday party, Canada Day is usually noisy – but it's also a lot of fun!

- 1 What do Canadian people celebrate on Canada Day?

- 2 Do students go to school on Canada Day?

- 3 How does the day start for most people?

- 4 Where do a lot of people eat in the evening?

- 5 What is another name for Canada Day?

Policy as Practice Patrick Schmidt, 2020 Both in concept and in practice policy has permeated the deepest recesses of civil society and has had particular impact on the lives of those who are actively connected to the educational process For music teachers in particular policy can evoke images of a forbidden environment beyond one's day to day duties and responsibilities Nothing however could be farther from the truth In this book author Patrick Schmidt offers a variety of ways for K 12 music educators to engage with analyze and develop effective policy Schmidt first demystifies the notion of policy and the characterization that it is out of reach to teachers before exemplifying how policy both big picture policy and policy as a daily encounter enacted at the local level share many similarities and are indeed co dependent fragments of the same process The first provides extensive and detailed contextual information offering a conceptual vision for how to consider policy in the fast pace and high adaptability reality of 21st century music education environments The second delivers a practical set of ideas guidelines and suggestions specific to music education for a closer and more active interaction with policy directed at providing tools for action in the daily working lives of music educators This approach encourages those who are novice to policy as well as those who would like to further explore and participate in policy action to exercise informed influence within their field community and school and ultimately have greater impact in pedagogical curricular administrative and legislative decision making
