The 10th anniversary edition of the instant classic The Sixth Extinction now with a new epilogue Kolbert blends intellectual and natural history and field reporting into a powerful account of the mass extinction unfolding before our eyes Over the last half a billion years there have been five mass extinctions when the diversity of life on earth suddenly and dramatically contracted Scientists around the world are currently monitoring the Sixth Extinction predicted to be the most devastating extinction event since the asteroid impact that wiped out the dinosaurs This time around the cataclysm is us In The Sixth Extinction two time winner of the National Magazine Award and New Yorker writer Elizabeth Kolbert draws on the work of scores of researchers in half a dozen disciplines accompanying many of them into the field geologists who study deep ocean cores botanists who follow the tree line as it climbs up the Andes marine biologists who dive off the Great Barrier Reef She introduces us to a dozen species some already gone others facing extinction including the Panamian golden frog staghorn coral the great auk and the Sumatran rhino Through these stories Kolbert provides a moving account of the disappearances occurring all around us and traces the evolution of extinction as concept from its first articulation by Georges Cuvier in revolutionary Paris up through the present day In the ten years since the book was originally published evidence of the Sixth Extinction has continued to mount making its message more urgent than ever The Sixth Extinction is likely to be mankind s

Andrea Phillips,Reesa Greenberg,T. J. Demos,Cecilia Sjöholm,Ekaterina Degot',2015 Ever since the nineteen nineties curatorial discourse has revolved around the figure of the professional curator Consequently curatorial politics is usually considered the direct result of a curator s deliberate acts and intentions Now however new institutional models and modes of exhibition practice together with key shifts in funding and collecting strategies have revealed aspects of curatorial politics over which the exhibition maker has little or no control The present volume presents a series of essays by noted art theorists and cultural scientists that go beyond the perspective of the individual curator to reveal these previously unexplored levels of
