Aurelius Augustine

City Of Gods:

The City of God Saint Augustine, 2018-10-19 The City of God Against the Pagans Latin De civitate Dei contra paganos often called The City of God is a book of Christian philosophy written in Latin by Augustine of Hippo in the early 5th century AD The book was in response to allegations that Christianity brought about the decline of Rome and is considered one of Augustine's most important works standing alongside The Confessions The Enchiridion On Christian Doctrine and On the Trinity As a work of one of the most influential Church Fathers The City of God is a cornerstone of Western thought expounding on many profound questions of theology such as the suffering of the righteous the existence of evil the conflict between free will and divine omniscience and the doctrine of original sin

The City of God St. Augustine of Hippo, 2015 De Civitate Dei in English known as The City of God is a classic of Christian philosophy written by Augustine of Hippo in the early 5th century AD It is one of his major works him being considered the most influential Father of the Church in Western Christianity The City of God profoundly shaped Western civilization The treatise was written to explain Christianity's relationship with competing religions and philosophies as well as its relationship with the Roman government with which it was increasingly intertwined

The City of God, Volumes I & II Aurelius Augustine, 2017-10-24 One of Augustine's most famous works this book tells of the fall of the Roman Empire and the rise of the holy and righteous City of God from the ashes While building a utopia much like The Republic does Augustine uses sound theology to build the foundations of the cities morals and lawful authority Many theologies especially within the Catholic tradition owe their beginnings to the teachings of Augustine and this work is one of the starts of the field This is a revised version of Devoted Publishing's 1st edition of this work

The City of God, Volume I Bishop of Hippo Saint Augustine, 2021-01-01 The glorious city of God is my theme in this work which you my dearest son Marcellinus suggested and which is due to you by my promise I have undertaken its defence against those who prefer their own gods to the Founder of this city a city surpassingly glorious whether we view it as it still lives by faith in this fleeting course of time and sojourns as a stranger in the midst of the ungodly or as it shall dwell in the fixed stability of its eternal seat which it now with patience waits for expecting until righteousness shall return unto judgment and it obtain by virtue of its excellence final victory and perfect peace A great work this and an arduous but God is my helper an excerpt
