The Future Of Us Jay Asher:

The Future of Us Jay Asher, Carolyn Mackler, 2012-01-05 From Jay Asher the bestselling author of THIRTEEN REASONS WHY now a Netflix TV show and Carolyn Mackey comes a story of friendship destiny and finding love What if you could see how your life would unfold just by clicking a button It's 1996 and Facebook isn't even invented Yet somehow best friends Emma and Josh have discovered their profiles fifteen years in the future and they're not sure they like what they see The more Emma and Josh learn about their future lives the more obsessed they become on changing the destiny that awaits them But what if focusing on the future means that you miss something that's right in front of you Her Next Chapter Lori Day, Charlotte Kugler, 2014-05-01 A guide to using book clubs to open up dialogue about and explore issues facing young girls today Mother daughter book clubs are a great way to encourage your child's reading and for girls and moms to bond with each other while also socializing with friends but they can do much more than that suggests educational psychologist and parenting coach Lori Day They can create a safe and empowering haven where girls can openly discuss questions and navigate some of the challenges of girlhood today In Her Next Chapter Day draws from experiences in her own club and her more than 25 years in education to offer a unique timely and inspiring take on mother daughter book clubs She provides clear succinct overviews of eight of the biggest challenges facing girls and young women today giving mothers the information they need to moderate thoughtful conversations while weaving in all the carefully chosen book movie and media recommendations plentiful discussion questions and prompts and suggested related activities that guide and extend discussions and make clubs fun It outlines precisely how mothers can work together using the magic of books to build girls confidence and lessen the negative impact of media on self image Also included are relevant quotes and experiences from a wide range of mothers a list of further resources and chapter closing reflections from Day's now adult daughter Charlotte who shares memories about what the club did for her as a child and observations on today's girl culture Posthumanism in Young Adult Fiction Anita Tarr, Donna R. White, 2018-04-27 Contributions by Torsten Caeners Phoebe Chen Mathieu Donner Shannon Hervey Angela S Insenga Patricia Kennon Maryna Matlock Ferne Merrylees Lars Schmeink Anita Tarr Tony M Vinci and Donna R White For centuries humanism has provided a paradigm for what it means to be human a rational unique unified universal autonomous being Recently however a new philosophical approach posthumanism has questioned these assumptions asserting that being human is not a fixed state but one always dynamic and evolving Restrictive boundaries are no longer in play and we do not define who we are by delineating what we are not animal machine monster There is no one aspect that makes a being human self awareness emotion artistic expression or problem solving since human characteristics reside in other species along with shared DNA Instead posthumanism looks at the ways our bodies intelligence and behavior connect and interact with the environment technology and other species In Posthumanism in Young Adult Fiction Finding Humanity in a Posthuman World editors Anita Tarr and Donna R White collect twelve essays that explore this new discipline's relevance in young adult literature. Adolescents often tangle with many issues raised by posthumanist theory such as body issues. The in-betweenness of adolescence makes stories for young adults ripe for posthumanist study. Contributors to the volume explore ideas of posthumanism including democratization of power, body enhancements, hybridity, multiplicity, plurality, and the environment by analyzing recent works for young adults including award winners like Paolo Bacigalupi's Ship Breaker and Nancy Farmer's The House of the Scorpion as well as the works of Octavia Butler and China Miéville.
