Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongo Beti's Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance African Textualities Bernth Lindfors, 1997 African literary texts can be approached in a variety of ways They may be examined in isolation as verbal artifacts that have a unique integrity They may be studied in relation to other texts that preceded and followed them Or they may be seen against the backdrop of the times traditions and circumstances that helped to shape them In this book all these approaches have been utilized sometimes singly sometimes in combination Minerva Guide to Mongo Beti A.N. instead on how meaning is achieved in three African novels of the 1950s Camara Laye's L'enfant noir, Hamidou Kane's L'avenant ambigu and Mongo Beti's Mission terminée. The analysis offered here is innovative on at least two counts. First, appropriating the anthropological rite of passage model, it argues convincingly for a reclassification of the three novels as members of a subset within the genre of Bildungsroman. Second, while illuminating the artistic dimensions of these works through careful scrutiny of imagery, setting, and discourse, The Liminal Novel also provides a new and valuable tool for reading many colonial coming-of-age novels.
