World Wide Web Journal, 1997 Knowing History in Mexico Trevor Stack, 2012-11-15 While much has been written about national history and citizenship anthropologist Trevor Stack focuses on the history and citizenship of towns and cities Basing his inquiry on fieldwork in west Mexican towns near Guadalajara Stack begins by observing that people talked and wrote of their towns history and not just of Mexico s Key to Stack s study is the insight that knowing history can give someone public status or authority It can make someone stand out as a good or eminent citizen What is it about history that makes this so What is involved in knowing history and who is good at it And what do they gain from being eminent citizens whether of towns or nations As well as academic historians Stack interviewed people from all walks of life bricklayers priests teachers politicians peasant farmers lawyers and migrants Resisting the idea that history is intrinsically interesting or valuable that one simply must know the past in order to understand the present he explores the very idea of the past and asks why it is valued by so many people
