of Food and Agriculture 2020 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations , 2020-11-26 Intensifying water constraints threaten food security and nutrition Thus urgent action is needed to make water use in agriculture more sustainable and equitable Irrigated agriculture remains by far the largest user of freshwater but scarcity of freshwater is a growing problem owing to increasing demand and competition for freshwater resources At the same time rainfed agriculture is facing increasing precipitation variability driven by climate change These trends will exacerbate disputes among water users and inequality in access to water especially for small scale farmers the rural poor and other vulnerable populations The State of Food and Agriculture 2020 presents new estimates on the pervasiveness of water scarcity in irrigated agriculture and of water shortages in rainfed agriculture as well as on the number of people affected It finds major differences across countries and also substantial spatial variation within countries This evidence informs a discussion of how countries may determine appropriate policies and interventions depending on the nature and magnitude of the problem but also on other factors such as the type of agricultural production system and countries level of development and their political structures Based on this the publication provides guidance on how countries can prioritize policies and interventions to overcome water constraints in agriculture while ensuring efficient sustainable and equitable access to water The Blue Frontier. Geothermal, Wind and Solar Energy Applications in Agriculture and Aquaculture Jochen Bundschuh,Guangnan Chen,D. Chandrasekharam,Janusz Piechocki,2017-08-02 The agri food chain consumes about one third of the world s energy production with about 12% of it for crop production and nearly 80% for processing distribution retail preparation and cooking The agri food chain also accounts for 80 90% of total global freshwater use where 70% alone is for irrigation Additionally on a global scale freshwater production consumes nearly 15% of the entire energy production It can therefore be argued that making agriculture and the agri food supply chain independent from fossil fuel use has a huge potential to contribute to global food security and climate protection not only for the next decades but also for the coming century Provision of secure accessible and environmentally sustainable supplies of water energy and food must thus be a priority One of the major objectives of the world s scientists farmers decisions makers and industrialists is to overcome the present dependence on fossil fuels in the agro food sector This dependency increases the volatility of food prices and affects economic access to sustenance This book provides a critical review of recent developments in solar wind and geothermal energy applications in agriculture and the agro food sector such as processing distribution retail preparation and cooking
