Policy Regimes and the Political Economy of Poverty Reduction in Malaysia B. Khoo, 2012-10-24 Malaysia's 40 year strategy of poverty eradication has met with a great deal of success yet has caused controversy for its links to ethnically oriented social restructuring This book is a critical evaluation of changing policy regimes affecting Malaysia's development record of industrialization and efficacy in adapting social policies

The Rise of International Capital Faris Al-Fadhat, 2019-01-09 This book analyzes the social forces and political coalitions driving regional integration projects in Asia with a focus on ASEAN and Indonesian conglomerates It asks which social forces within the domestic political economy of Asian states are driving governments to seek regional arrangements for economic governance In particular the book asks how the emergence reorganization and expansion of capitalist class have conditioned political support for regional economic integration By addressing these issues the book emphasizes that the wellspring of regional economic institution projects stem from the process of capitalist development and the social forces it has unleashed The book's aims place the social and class relations that underpin regional projects rather than the institutions which result from them at the centre of the analysis of regional integration The research for this account draws primarily on primary documents from archival and field research conducted by the author including company documents and in depth interviews government reports and policies and trade publications and data sources which is supplemented with secondary sources where relevant
