Artists Reality:

The Artist's Reality Mark Rothko, 2004-01-01 This recently discovered manuscript by the celebrated artist Mark Rothko offers a landmark discussion of his views on topics ranging from the Renaissance to contemporary art criticism and the role of art and artists in society

The Artist's Reality Mark Rothko, 2023-07-11 Mark Rothko's classic book on artistic practice, ideals, and philosophy, now with an expanded introduction and an afterword by Makoto Fujimura. Stored in a New York City warehouse for many years after the artist's death, this extraordinary manuscript by Mark Rothko (1903-1970) was published to great acclaim in 2004. Probably written in 1940 or 1941, it contains Rothko's ideas on the modern art world, art history, myth, beauty, the challenges of being an artist in society, the true nature of American art, and much more. In his introduction, illustrated with examples of Rothko's work and pages from the manuscript, the artist's son Christopher Rothko describes the discovery of the manuscript and the fascinating process of its initial publication. This edition includes discussion of Rothko's Scribble Book (1932), his notes on teaching art to children (which has received renewed scholarly attention in recent years) and provides clues to the genesis of Rothko's thinking on pedagogy. In an afterword written for this edition, artist and author Makoto Fujimura reflects on how Rothko's writings offer a lifeboat for art world refugees and a model for upholding artistic ideals. He considers the transcendent capacity of Rothko's paintings to express pure ideas and the significance of the decade-long gap between The Artist's Reality and Rothko's mature paintings during which the horrors of the Holocaust and the atomic bomb were unleashed upon the world.

Mark Rothko Christopher Rothko, 2015-11-24 Mark Rothko (1903-1970), world-renowned icon of Abstract Expressionism, is rediscovered in this wholly original examination of his art and life, written by his son. Synthesizing rigorous critique with personal anecdotes, Christopher, the younger of the artist's two children, offers a unique perspective on this modern master. Christopher Rothko draws on an intimate knowledge of the artworks to present eighteen essays that look closely at the paintings and explore the ways in which they foster a profound connection between viewer and artist through form, color, and scale. The prominent commissions for the Rothko Chapel in Houston and the Seagram Building murals in New York receive extended treatment, as do many of the lesser-known and underappreciated aspects of Rothko's oeuvre, including reassessments of his late dark canvases and his formidable body of works on paper. The author also discusses the artist's writings of the 1930s and 1940s, the significance of music to the artist, and our enduring struggles with visual abstraction in the contemporary era. Finally, Christopher Rothko writes movingly about his role as the artist's son, his commonalities with his father, and the terms of the relationship they forged during the writer's childhood.

Mark Rothko: From the Inside Out is a thoughtful reexamination of the legendary artist, serving as a passionate introduction for readers new to his work and offering a fresh perspective to those who know it well.

Art vs. TV Francesco Spampinato, 2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange
