The Freedom Writers Diary Teacher's Guide Erin Gruwell, The Freedom Writers, 2008-09-16 A standards based teacher's guide from the educator behind the #1 New York Times bestseller The Freedom Writers Diary with innovative teaching techniques that will engage, empower and enlighten. Don't miss the public television documentary Freedom Writers: Stories from the Heart. In response to thousands of letters and e-mails from teachers across the country who learned about Erin Gruwell and her amazing students in The Freedom Writers Diary and the hit movie Freedom Writers, Gruwell and a team of teacher experts have written The Freedom Writers Diary Teacher's Guide, a book that will encourage teachers and students to expand the walls of their classrooms and think outside the box. Here Gruwell goes in depth and shares her unconventional but highly successful educational strategies and techniques. All 150 of her students who had been deemed unteachable graduated from Wilson High School in Long Beach, California. From her very successful toast for change, an exercise in which Gruwell exhorted her students to leave the past behind and start fresh, to writing exercises that focus on the importance of journal writing, vocabulary and more. In an easy to use format with black and white illustrations, this teacher's guide will become the essential go-to manual for teachers who want to make a difference in their pupils' lives.

The Freedom Writers Diary (20th Anniversary Edition) The Freedom Writers, Erin Gruwell, 2007-04-24 #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The twentieth anniversary edition of the classic story of an incredible group of students and the teacher who inspired them, featuring updates on the students' lives, new journal entries, and an introduction by Erin Gruwell. Now a public television documentary Freedom Writers: Stories from the Heart. In 1994, an idealistic first-year teacher in Long Beach, California, named Erin Gruwell, confronted a room of unteachable at-risk students. She had intercepted a note with an ugly racial caricature and angrily declared that this was precisely the sort of thing that led to the Holocaust. She was met by uncomprehending looks; none of her students had heard of one of the defining moments of the twentieth century. So she rebooted her entire curriculum, using treasured books such as Anne Frank's diary as her guide to combat intolerance and misunderstanding. Her students began recording their thoughts and feelings in their own diaries, eventually dubbing themselves the Freedom Writers. Consisting of powerful entries from the students' diaries and narrative text by Erin Gruwell, The Freedom Writers Diary is an unforgettable story of how hard work, courage, and determination changed the lives of a teacher and her students. In the two decades since its original publication, the book has sold more than one million copies and inspired a major motion picture, Freedom Writers. And now, with this twentieth anniversary edition, readers are brought up to date on the lives of the Freedom Writers as they blend indispensable takes on social issues with uplifting stories of attending college and watching their own children follow in their footsteps. The Freedom Writers Diary remains a vital read for anyone who believes in second chances.

Rodney King riots and the kids in Erin's classroom reflected the anger, resentment, and hopelessness of their community. Undaunted, Erin fostered an educational philosophy that valued and promoted diversity, tolerance, and communication, and in the process she transformed her students' lives as well as her own. Erin Gruwell and the Freedom Writers went on to establish the Freedom Writers Foundation to replicate the success of Room 203 and provide all students with hope and opportunities to realize their academic potential. Since then, the foundation has trained more than 800 teachers around the world. Teaching Hope unites the voices of these Freedom Writer Teachers who share uplifting, devastating, and poignant stories from their classrooms—stories that provide insight into the struggles and triumphs of education in all of its forms. Mirroring an academic year, these dispatches from the front lines of education take us from the anticipation of the first day to the disillusionment, challenges, and triumphs of the school year. These are the voices of teachers who persevere in the face of intolerance, rigid administration, and countless other challenges, and continue to reach out and teach those who are deemed unteachable. Their stories inspire everyone to make a difference in the world around them.

Each chapter includes photographs, sidebars, and fascinating facts about these groundbreaking women: Maria Montessori, founder of the Montessori method of self-directed learning; Helen Keller and Annie Sullivan, Helen's miracle worker; Christa McAuliffe, high school teacher who died in the space shuttle Challenger disaster; Dorval Onesime, a Native Metis educator in the early 1900s from Saskatchewan; Denise Fruchter, a special education teacher with Tourette's syndrome from Toronto; Malalai Joya, campaigning for girls' education in Afghanistan; Erin Gruwell, founder of Freedom Writers USA; Raden Ayu Kartini, who campaigned for the education of women in Indonesia; Marva Collins, African American teacher dedicated to improving schools in US cities. Town Journal, 1922. Teaching Life Writing Texts. Miriam Fuchs, Craig Howes, 2008. The past thirty years have witnessed a rapid growth in the number and variety of courses and programs that study life writing from literary, philosophical, psychological, and cultural perspectives. The field has evolved from the traditional approach that biographies and autobiographies were always about prominent people, historically significant persons, the nobility, celebrities, writers, to the conception of life writing as a genre of interrogation and revelation. The texts now studied include memoirs, testimonios, diaries, oral histories, genealogies, and group biographies, and extend to resources in the visual and plastic arts in films and videos, and on the Internet. Today, the tensions between canonical and emergent life writing texts between the famous and the formerly unrepresented are making the study of biography and autobiography a far more nuanced and multifarious activity. This volume in the MLA series Options for Teaching builds on and complements earlier work on pedagogical issues in life writing studies. Over forty contributors from a broad range of educational institutions describe courses for every level of postsecondary instruction. Some writers draw heavily on literary and cultural theory; others share their assignments and weekly syllabi. Many essays grapple with texts that represent disability, illness, abuse, and depression, ethnic, sexual, and racial discrimination, crises, and catastrophes, witnessing, and testimonials, human rights violations, and genocide The classes described are taught in humanities cultural studies social science and language departments and are located in among other countries the United States Great Britain Canada Australia Germany Eritrea and South Africa
