Stolen Jane Harrison:

Stolen Jane Harrison, 2000 This is a play about the Stolen Generations Five young Aboriginal children are forcibly removed from their families and brought up in a repressive children's home where they are required to forget their families their homes and their language In the home they are trained for domestic service and other menial jobs They are taught never to aspire to a life of achievement and success The story is told through the children themselves both as youngsters and as the adults they eventually become as they search for an identity both within society as a whole and within themselves Not all of them manage to cope with the world or themselves Although extremely moving and painful the play nevertheless retains the innocent humour of the children as they struggle to come to terms with the confusing situation in which they find themselves

BOOK JACKET Transgressive Itineraries Marc Maufort, 2003 The fast growing body of postcolonial drama is progressively gaining its just recognition in the twentieth century canon of English language plays From the vantage point of various samplings along the Trans Pacific axis linking English Canada Australia and New Zealand this monograph seeks to document the significance of this emerging postcolonial theater More specifically it examines the myriad ways in which over the last two decades representative mainstream ethnic and First Nations playwrights have dramatized Europe's Other in its multiple guises In their efforts to match new content with innovative form these artists have followed transgressive itineraries redrawing the boundaries of conventional Western stage realism Their new aesthetics often relies on techniques akin to Homi Bhabha's notions of hybridity and mimicry The present study offers detailed analyses of the modes of hybridization through which Judith Thompson Louis Nowra Tomson Highway Jack Davis Hone Kouka and other prominent writers have articulated subtle forms of psychic grotesque and mythic magic realism Their legacy will undoubtedly affect the postcolonial dramaturgies of the twenty first century

Stolen, Jane Harrison Jane Tibby, 2001 Absent Mothers Frances Greenslade, 2017-09-01

Missing dead disappeared or otherwise absent mothers haunt us and the stories we tell ourselves Our literature from fairytales like Cinderella and The Little Mermaid to popular narratives like Cheryl Strayed's recent book Wild is peopled with motherless children The absent mother whether in literature or life may force us to forge an independent identity But she can also leave a mother shaped hole and a howling loneliness that dogs us through our adult lives This anthology explores the theme of absent mothers from scholars and creative writers who tell personal stories and provide the theoretical framework to recognize and begin to understand the impact of motherlessness that ripples through our cultures and our art

Narrating Nomadism G. N. Devy, Geoffrey V. Davis, K. K. Chakravarty, 2020-11-29 Narrating Nomadism provides an unflinching account of ethnic groups and nomadic communities across the world that were branded as criminal during colonial times It explores the tragic effect of the new identity imposed on them the traumatic survival of these communities and cultures and the creative expression of this experience in their arts and literature in the form of resistance Presenting specific contexts and locations of cultural devastation in history the volume traces colonial social imagination as such showing how the grossly misperceived non sedentary communities in the colonies were subjected to the mission of settling them The essays presented here document these alternative histories from perspectives ranging from literary criticism and art history to ethnography and socio linguistics highlighting in what ways different nomadic communities negotiate discrimination and challenge in contemporary times while finding remarkable convergence in their local histories and collective testimonies This anthology opens up a new area in postcolonial studies as well as cultural anthropology by bringing the viewpoint of marginalized communities and their cultural rights to bear upon history society and culture It places an activist's view from below at the centre of literary interpretation engages with oral history more substantially than folklore studies usually do and brings together several historical narratives hitherto unexplored This will be essential for students of anthropology sociology cultural studies history linguistics post colonial studies literature and tribal studies as well as the general reader

The Visitors Jane Harrison, 2023-08-30 The most exciting debut in 2023 The Visitors is an audacious earthy funny gritty and powerful re imaging of a crucial moment in Australia's history an unputdownable work of fiction On a steamy hot day in January 1788 seven Aboriginal men Elder statesmen representing the nearby clans gather at Warrane Several newly arrived ships are in the harbour The men meet to discuss their response to these Visitors All day they talk argue debate Where are the Visitors from What do they want Might they just warra warra wai back to where they came from Should they be welcomed Or should they be made to leave The decision of the men must be unanimous and will have far reaching implications for all Throughout the day the weather is strange with mammatus clouds unbearable heat and a pending thunderstorm Somewhere trouble is brewing From award winning author and playwright Jane Harrison The Visitors based on her smash hit play of the same name is powerful playful provocative and moving a radical re envisioning of history and an unputdownable work of fiction think Twelve Angry Men but with an authentic Australian flavour and humour

Standard English Barry Spurr, Lloyd Cameron, 2000 Jane Harrison's Stolen Kirsten West, 2004 Crucible of Cultures Marc Maufort, Franca Bellarsi, 2002 The dawn of a new millennium offers an opportunity to reappraise the achievements of contemporary English language theatre and drama in an increasingly cross cultural age New multicultural voices are gaining access to the international English stage which today more than ever is becoming a crucible of cultures The many challenging essays gathered in this volume reflect this developing mosaic Written by prominent theatre scholars from Europe the United States Canada Asia and Australia these contributions explore recent drama not only in the United Kingdom and the United States but also in such countries of the former British Empire as Canada South Africa Australia and New Zealand Focusing on major Anglophone dramatists of the past few decades these essays provide a fascinating survey of the myriad ways in which English language drama in transition transcends traditional aesthetic and cultural boundaries

Theatre Record , 2001 Jane Harrison's Stolen Kirsten Oakley, 2004 Theatre Australia , 2004 Siting the Other Marc Maufort, Franca Bellarsi, 2001 The emergence of contemporary Australian and English Canadian multicultural drama undoubtedly constitutes a fascinating development in the history of international literatures written in English These postcolonial plays offer ideal vantage points from which to observe the struggle of two comparable Commonwealth countries to accommodate the pluralism of their social fabric As the prominent theatre scholars of this collection congenitally argue the articulation of otherness forms a central concern in the drama of these two countries The postcolonial playwrights studied in this book interpret marginality as an expression of resistance against the legacy of Empire often through the weapon of subversive mimicry The organising spatial metaphor of the book suggests new readings of the other as an evolving site of contestation This volume articulates a new form of comparative poetics in which dramatic texts are used as reflecting mirrors as privileged tools to explore the similarity and otherness that Australia and Canada share The Best of Andrew Bolt Andrew Bolt, 2005 The stolen generations fact or dangerous myth Global warming hell or overheated hype Few writers dare even ask such questions Andrew Bolt is Australia s most talked about columnist for not only asking but for telling you the controversial truth Agree with him or not whether on our war on terror or the danger of the new green religion you ve heard only half the story until you ve heard the must know rest from Bolt Here are some of his best columns and not just on the myth busting topics that have made him notorious among our cultural elite He writes also on loving and dying on our ceremonies and celebrations and on this wonderful country and its hate preaching critics The Bulletin , 2006 Books for the Journey Pamela J. Fenner, Anne J. Greer, John H. Wulsin, 2003 Contains alphabetical listings of books for young adults separated into five categories with author year of earliest publication and suggested grade levels included Designed for use by teens parents educators other adults and those for whom English is a second language
