

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5

2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.

3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Learning Per Andersson, Andreas Fejes, Fredrik Sandberg, 2017-10-02 Recognition of prior learning RPL has emerged in recent decades as an important policy area and policy concept It is a phenomenon with a certain variation in practices as well as contexts concepts and conceptions However there is a basic idea about giving recognition to prior learning wherever and whenever learning has taken place Such ideas can be materialised in formal assessment systems providing the basis for recognition as well as in informal processes where prior learning is made visible and gets recognition This book provides a range of empirically and theoretically based contributions from different parts of the world where RPL or an equivalent is mobilised as part of educational practices for adults Discussion in this area often takes place locally This volume compiles different kinds of contributions to create a broader dialogue among scholars and practitioners not only on the specific topic of RPL but also on more general issues faced in educational research It was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education Race, Ethnicity, and Language Data Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Care Services, Subcommittee on Standardized Collection of Race/Ethnicity Data for Healthcare Quality Improvement, 2009-12-30 The goal of eliminating disparities in health care in the United States remains elusive Even as quality improves on specific measures disparities often persist Addressing these disparities must begin with the fundamental step of bringing the nature of the disparities and the groups at risk for those disparities to light by collecting health care quality information stratified by race ethnicity and language data Then attention can be focused on where interventions might be best applied and on planning and evaluating those efforts to inform the development of policy and the application of resources A lack of standardization of categories for race ethnicity and language data has been suggested as one obstacle to achieving more widespread collection and utilization of these data Race Ethnicity and Language Data identifies current models for collecting and coding race ethnicity and language data reviews challenges involved in obtaining these data and makes recommendations for a nationally standardized approach for use in health care quality improvement Annual
