Pluralizing Humanism Slavica Jakelić, 2025-02-28 Humanism is appealed to today whenever we want to tackle the conditions of dehumanization in the contemporary world But for humanism to be viable in the twenty first century this book argues it needs to be pluralized Employing theoretical historical and sociological arguments this book moves beyond the discourse of critique It engages theories of religion and secularism as well as postmodern postcolonial and decolonial critiques of Western humanist projects to uncover the ideas and practices of religious and secular humanisms when they challenge dehumanization in the pursuit of conditions of flourishing for all Through studies of the Solidarity movement in Poland and the anti apartheid movement in

South Africa the book demonstrates the centrality of humanist traditions to the emergence of religious secular solidarities that transformed the political landscapes of the world By highlighting the instances in which humanisms functioned as checks on each other s absolutist claims the book contends that humanisms supply a constructive path for addressing the challenges of our time a time of radically divided societies and intolerant even violent forms of nationalism A challenge to the critiques of humanism that seek to identify it solely as the legacy of the West as anti religious discourse or relegate it to the domain of power constellations Pluralizing Humanism highlights the rich plurality of humanist discourses and the need for their mutual engagements It points to humanist ideals as constitutive of politics that can guide our human power because they are irreducible to it As such this book will appeal to social scientists social theorists religious studies scholars and ethicists with interests in religion secularism social movements and humanist thought and practice

Report Concerning Canadian Archives for the Year ... Public Archives of Canada,1906 Report of the Public Archives Public Archives of Canada,1906 Holy Ignorance Roy Olivier,2014-01-16 Olivier Roy world renowned authority on Islam and politics finds in the modern disconnection between faith communities and socio cultural identities a fertile space for fundamentalism to grow Instead of freeing the world from religion secularization has encouraged a kind of holy ignorance to take root an anti intellectualism that promises immediate emotional access to the sacred and positions itself in direct opposition to contemporary pagan culture The secularization of society was supposed to free people from religion yet individuals are converting en masse to fundamentalist faiths such as Protestant evangelicalism Islamic Salafism and Haredi Judaism These religions either reconnect adherents to their culture through casual referents like halal fast food or maintain their momentum through purification rituals such as speaking in tongues a practice that allows believers to utter a language that is entirely their own Instead of a return to traditional religious worship we are now witnessing the individualisation of faith and the disassociation of faith communities from ethnic and national identities Roy explores the options now available to powers that hope to integrate or control these groups and whether marginalisation or homogenisation will further divide believers from their culture
