using POJOs including how to organize and encapsulate the business logic access the database manage transactions and handle database concurrency This book is a new generation Java applications guide it enables readers to successfully build lightweight applications that are easier to develop test and maintain

Conference Proceedings, 1992 Humane Economics Jack C. High, Don Lavoie, 2006 Don Lavoie's published work encompasses a wide range of subjects socialism hermeneutics information technology and culture The subjects appear unrelated but a close examination of his research reveals an underlying unity of thought and an economics at sharp variance with the post World War II mainstream The contributors to this volume explore the legacy of his scholarship and its implications for economics Three themes run throughout Don Lavoie's work and are explored in these chapters the overarching one being the importance of social intelligence to economics Second and related to this was his belief that certain institutions or practices are better at creating social intelligence than others what might be termed the primacy of liberty or voluntarism Thirdly he asserted that economics is more closely aligned with the humane disciplines than with the physical As these essays make clear if the next generation of economists does integrate economics with the humanities some of the credit must go to Don Lavoie Students and scholars of economics methodology and the humanities more broadly will find this a provocative and enriching collection

Principles of Object-oriented Software Development Anton Eliëns, 1995 Provides full coverage of object oriented technology paying equal attention to the underlying theory and to programming practice The author shows object oriented concepts at all stages of the software life cycle Separate tutorial sections on C Smalltalk and Eiffel are included

Scenario-Based Design John Millar Carroll, 1995-05-29 This volume is based on a workshop sponsored by the editor at IBM and includes contributions from an international group of researchers in the field of human computer interaction
