PART A

HONG KONG EXAMINATIONS AND ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY
HONG KONG DIPLOMA OF SECONDARY EDUCATION EXAMINATION 2020

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PAPER 1

PART A

Reading Passages

8:30 am – 10:00 am (1½ hours)
(for both Parts A and B)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) There are two parts (A and B) in this paper. All candidates should attempt Part A. In Part B, you should attempt either Part B1 (easier section) OR Part B2 (more difficult section). Candidates attempting Parts A and B2 will be able to attain the full range of levels, while Level 4 will be the highest level attainable for candidates attempting Parts A and B1.
- (2) After the announcement of the start of the examination, you should first write your Candidate Number and stick barcode labels in the spaces provided on the appropriate pages of the Part A Question-Answer Book and the Part B Question-Answer Book which you are going to attempt.
- (3) Write your answers in the spaces provided in the Question-Answer Books. Answers written in the margins will not be marked.
- (4) For multiple-choice questions, you are advised to blacken the appropriate circle with a pencil so that wrong marks can be completely erased with a clean rubber. Mark only ONE answer to each question. Two or more answers will score NO MARKS.
- (5) Supplementary answer sheets will be supplied on request. Use separate supplementary answer sheets for Part A and Part B. Write your Candidate Number, mark the question number box and stick a barcode label on each sheet, and fasten them with string INSIDE the relevant Question-Answer Book.
- (6) No extra time will be given to candidates for sticking on barcode labels or filling in the question number boxes after the 'Time is up' announcement.
- (7) The two Question-Answer Books you have attempted (one for Part A and one for Part B) will be collected together at the end of the examination. Fasten the two Question-Answer Books together with the green tag provided.
- (8) The unused Question-Answer Book for Part B will be collected separately at the end of the examination. This will not be marked. Do not write any answers in it.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PART A

- (1) The Question-Answer Book for Part A is inserted in this Reading Passages booklet.
- (2) Attempt ALL questions in Part A. Each question carries ONE mark unless otherwise stated.

Not to be taken away before the end of the examination session

Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry

The End of Theory Richard Bookstaber, 2019-04-02 An in depth look at how to account for the human complexities at the heart of today s financial system Our economy may have recovered from the Great Recession but not our economics The End of Theory discusses why the human condition and the radical uncertainty of our world renders the standard economic model and the theory behind it useless for dealing with financial crises What model should replace it None At least not any version we ve been using for the past two hundred years Richard Bookstaber argues for a new approach called agent based economics one that takes as a starting point the fact that we are humans not the optimizing automatons that standard economics assumes we are Sweeping aside the historic failure of twentieth century economics The End of Theory offers a novel perspective and more realistic framework to help prevent today s financial system from blowing up again

Indigenous Rights and Water Resource Management Katie O'Bryan, 2018-10-26 In an era of climate change the need to manage our water resources effectively for future generations has become an increasingly significant challenge Indigenous management practices have been successfully used to manage inland water systems around the world for thousands of years and Indigenous people have been calling for a greater role in the management of water resources As First Peoples and as holders of important knowledge of sustainable water management practices they regard themselves as custodians and rights holders deserving of a meaningful role in decision making This book argues that a key albeit not the only means of ensuring appropriate participation in decision making about water management is for such participation to be legislatively mandated To this end the book draws on case studies in Australia and New Zealand in order to elaborate the legislative tools necessary to ensure Indigenous participation consultation and representation in the water management landscape

Multiculturalism, Educational Inclusion, and Connectedness Celeste Y.M. Yuen, 2022-06-29 This book offers a unique focus on the well being of Chinese and South Southeast Asian students in the context of Hong Kong and in particular the experience of integrating these young people into its schooling system Yuen uses a narrative method that captures and offers a vivid insight into the actual experience of students from disadvantaged backgrounds whilst providing fascinating comparisons between students coming from Mainland China and those whose parents are South Southeast Asian immigrants Readers will be particularly interested in the attention given to spiritual well being and how religious participation and affiliation make a difference in giving meaning to life and in creating a positive mindset as viewed and explained by students themselves This well organised volume begins by laying out the major themes relating to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child followed by a richly elaborated theoretical chapter which defines core concepts and their interconnection This is followed by substantive chapters where the voices of each of the different diverse groupings of students Chinese Mainland immigrants Chinese Cross boundary youth South Southeast Asian ethnic youth and mainstream HK youth from underprivileged backgrounds are heard and interpreted in relation to themes of inclusion and well being It then builds upon the narratives to provide bottom up solutions and pathways towards the inclusion and well being of all students as well as the professional development of teachers who can take up the challenge of ensuring that all young people are nurtured to fulfil their potential Providing readers with practical implications and takeaways for education practice this must read work will appeal to a wide range of education practitioners and students involved in providing or researching inclusive education relating to mainstream and non mainstream Chinese South Asian and other ethnic minority students
