

"Master Harold" ... and the Boys
Athol Fugard

CAST:

Willie Malopo: a middle-aged black man employed by a middle-class white family, owners of a tea-room
Sam Semela: a middle-aged black man, a little bit older and wiser than Willie, employed by the same family
Hally: seventeen-year-old white boy, high-school student, whose parents own the tearoom

The St. George's Park Tea Room on a wet and windy Port Elizabeth [on the SE coast of South Africa] afternoon.

Tables and chairs have been cleared and are stacked on one side except for one which stands apart with a single chair. On this table a knife, fork, spoon and side plate in anticipation of a simple meal, together with a pile of comic books.

Other elements: a serving counter with a few stale cakes under glass and a not very impressive display of sweets, cigarettes and cool drinks, etc.; a few cardboard advertising handouts - Cadbury's Chocolate, Coca-Cola - and a blackboard on which an untrained hand has chalked up the prices of Tea, Coffee, Scones, Milkshakes - all flavors - and Cool Drinks; a few sad ferns in pots; a telephone; an old-style jukebox.

There is an entrance on one side and an exit into a kitchen on the other.

Leaning on the solitary table, his head cupped in one hand as he pages through one of the comic books, is Sam. A black man in his mid-forties. He wears the white coat of a waiter. Behind him on his knees, mopping down the floor with a bucket of water and a rag, is Willie. Also black and about the same age as Sam. He has his sleeves and trousers rolled up.

The year: 1950

WILLIE: [Singing as he works.]

"She was scandalizin' my name,
She took my money
She called me honey
But she was scandalizin' my name,
Called it love but was playin' a game . . ."

He gets up and moves the bucket. Stands thinking for a moment, then, raising his arms to hold an imaginary partner, he launches into an intricate ballroom dance step. Although a mildly comic figure, he reveals a reasonable degree of accomplishment.

Hey, Sam.

Sam, absorbed in the comic book, does not respond.

Hey, Boet [brother, pal, comrade] Sam!

Sam looks up.

I'm getting it. The quickstep. Look now and tell me. [He repeats the step.] Well?

SAM: [Encouragingly.] Show me again.
