

OTHELLO QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Act 1 Scene 1

GROUP

Act 1 Scene 2

1. Shakespeare's "Othello" shows how Othello's status as a military commander gives him confidence to ignore Brabantio's rage in the face of a senator's protests. He is confident that his marriage to Desdemona is legal, which supports his confidence. Othello's Moorish heritage may make him less prone to prejudice, making it unlikely that he would interpret Brabantio's rage as racial discrimination. Furthermore, he chooses to focus on solving bigger problems rather than provoking Brabantio's fury due to his cool and collected personality.
2. Cassio brings a message to Othello that the Duke of Venice requires his presence immediately, as there is a pressing matter that needs his attention concerning a military matter in Cyprus.
3. Desdemona, according to Brabantio, could not love the Moor "sans magic," thus Othello is accused of employing charms and potions to deceive her. Othello admits that the love of his new bride was gained by the charm of his stories.
4. Brabantio initially wishes to arrest Othello and hold him in jail until he can be brought to court due to his anger and outrage over Othello's secret marriage to his daughter Desdemona. However, what forces him to change his plans is the urgent military situation that Venice faces. The Duke of Venice informs Brabantio that the state's military forces are needed to defend Cyprus from a Turkish invasion, and Othello, as a highly respected general, is crucial to this effort.

Act 1 Scene 3

1. Both the Duke and the Senator (Brabantio) are confronted with pressing concerns. In Act 1, Scene 1, the Duke, and Senators are preoccupied with a looming military crisis, discussing the imminent threat posed by the Turkish fleet's advance towards Cyprus. They urgently require the military expertise and leadership of Othello, the Moorish general, to strategize and defend Venice's interests. In Act 1, Scene 2, the focus shifts to Brabantio's distress upon discovering his daughter Desdemona's secret marriage to Othello. Fueled by anger and outrage, he accuses Othello of employing witchcraft or spells to win Desdemona's love.
2. the Duke and the Senator (Brabantio) speak favorably of Othello. The Duke praises Othello's military valor and loyalty to Venice, referring to him as "Valiant Othello" and emphasizing that his character transcends any racial prejudice. Brabantio, Desdemona's father and a Senator, also acknowledges Othello's admirable qualities, describing him as "a fellow almost damned in a fair wife." Despite their initial positive views of Othello, their concerns primarily revolve around his marriage to Desdemona, with Brabantio feeling distressed over the marriage taking place without his consent.
3. The Senate's reaction to the charges brought by Brabantio against Othello is initially measured, with a willingness to hear both sides of the dispute. The Duke, who presides
