PROJECT PROPOSAL GUIDE

You must write a proposal for every film you produce. This needs to be signed by me before you can film.

Your proposal should be at least one side of typed A4.
Use this as a guide to writing it....

Description

(This is your longest section. Add as much detail as you can)

Provide an explanation of your ideas.

What is your film about?

What will it look like?

What has inspired your ideas?

What other films/filmmakers/artists etc have you looked at?

Resources

What equipment will you need?

Will you be using any specific editing techniques or special effects and how will you achieve these?

Actors and Locations

Where will you be shooting your film and who will be in it (if anyone)? Do you need to get permission from anyone to use your locations? Are there children in your film and do you have their parents/carers permission?

Health and Safety

Are there any issues involved in shooting your film that might result in a risk to health and safety to you, your actors or the public? How will you manage these risks?

The Art of Nonfiction Movie Making Jeffrey Friedman, Rob Epstein, Sharon Wood, 2012-08-17 The past few years have featured such blockbusters as Super Size Me Fahrenheit 9 11 Sicko March of the Penguins and An Inconvenient Truth And as news articles proclaim a new era in the history of documentary films more and more new directors are making their first film a nonfiction one But in addition to posing all of the usual challenges inherent to more standard filmmaking documentaries also present unique problems that need to be understood from the outset Where does the idea come from How do you raise the money How much money do you need What visual style is best suited to the story What are the legal issues involved And how can a film reach that all important milestone and find a willing distributor Epstein Friedman and Wood tackle all of these important questions with examples and anecdotes from their own careers The result is an informative and entertaining guide for those just starting out and an enlightening read for anyone interested in a behind the scenes look at this newly reinvigorated field of film

The Documentary Film Makers Handbook Genevieve Jolliffe, Andrew Zinnes, 2006-11-14 Documentary films have enjoyed a huge resurgence over the last few years and there s a new generation of filmmakers wanting to get involved In addition the digital revolution has made documentaries even more accessible to the general filmmaker Documentary films can now be shot professionally using cheaper equipment and smaller cameras enable the documentarian to be less intrusive and therefore more intimate in the subjects lives With an increasing number of documentaries making it to the big screen and enjoying ongoing sales on DVD the time is right for an information packed handbook that will guide new filmmakers towards potential artistic and commercial success The Documentary Film Makers Handbook features incisive and helpful interviews with dozens of industry professionals on subjects as diverse as interview techniques the NBC News Archive music rights setting up your own company the Film Arts Foundation pitching your proposal the Sundance Documentary Fund the Documentary Channel the British Film Council camera hire filmmaking ethics working with kids editing your documentary and DVD distribution The book also includes in depth case studies of some of the most successful and acclaimed documentary films of recent years including Mad Hot Ballroom Born Into Brothels Touching the Void Beneath the Veil and Amandla The Documentary Film Makers Handbook will be an essential resource for anyone who wants to know more about breaking into this exciting field

Teaching Visual Methods in the Social Sciences Sal Watt, Caroline Wakefield, 2017-05-08 Teaching Visual Methods in the Social Sciences presents a practical and theoretical framework for those wanting to introduce visual methods into their curricula Drawing on the expertise of contributors from across the social sciences the book provides a comprehensive introduction to visual methodology learning and teaching theory and the ethical considerations involved Divided into three parts the book begins with an overview of how visual methods have been used in academic research and how this can be applied to teaching and pedagogy It then goes on to introduce different methods including photography film and drawing describing how they can be used in various locations

Finally the book pulls everything together advocating the wider use of teaching visual methods in further and higher education curricula across the social science subjects The book features a plethora of examples as well as practical resources for FE and HE teachers making it an essential companion for anyone interested in utilising visual methods in their teaching

The Oxford Handbook of Levinas Michael L. Morgan,2019-04-10 Emmanuel Levinas 1906 1995 emerged as an influential philosophical voice in the final decades of the twentieth century and his reputation has continued to flourish and increase in our own day His central themes the primacy of the ethical and the core of ethics as our responsibility to and for others speak to readers from a host of disciplines and perspectives However his writings and thought are challenging and difficult The Oxford Handbook of Levinas contains essays that aim to clarify and engage Levinas and his writings in a number of ways Some focus on central themes of his work others on the ways in which he read and was influenced by figures from Plato Hobbes Descartes and Kant to Blanchot Husserl Heidegger and Derrida And there are essays on how his thinking has been appropriated in moral and political thought psychology film criticism and more and on the relation between his thinking and religious themes and traditions Finally several essays deal primarily with how readers have criticized him and found him wanting The volume exposes and explores both the depth of Levinas s philosophical work and the range of applications to which it has been put with special attention to clarifying why his interests in the human condition the crisis of civilization the centrality and character of ethics and morality and the very meaning of human experience should be of interest to the widest range of readers

Dox ,2004 Cultural Amnesia Clive James,2007 In the forty years it took me to write this book I only gradually realized that the finished work if it were going to be true to the pattern of my experience would have no pattern The book I wanted to write had its origins in the books I was reading Several times in my early days I had to sell my best books to buy food so I never underlined anything When conditions improved I became less fastidious Not long after I began marking passages for future consideration I also began keeping notes in the margin beside the markings and then longer notes on the endpapers As the time for assembling my reflections approached I resolved that a premature synthesis was the thing to be avoided So this is a book about how not to reach one If I have done my job properly themes will emerge from the apparent randomness and make this work intelligible But it will undoubtedly be a turbulent read and if this book were not difficult it would not be true A lifetime in the making Cultural Amnesia is the book Clive James has always wanted to write Organized from A through to Z and containing over 100 essays it s the ultimate guide to the twentieth century illuminating the careers of many of its greatest thinkers humanists musicians artists and philosophers From Louis Armstrong to Ludwig Wittgenstein via Walter Benjamin Sigmund Freud Franz Kafka and Marcel Proust it s a book for our times and indeed for all time The New York Times Index ,2002 The AOPA Pilot ,2006 Motion Picture Daily ,1948 Art Nexus ,2007 Exhibitors Daily Review ,1948 Who's who in the West ,1987 New Statesman ,2006 The New York Times Book Review ,1994-10 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Trailer Mechanics Fernanda Rossi,2005 Trailer Mechanics guides documentary filmmakers on how to make their fundraising trailers It includes also practical
